A Few Thoughts:

A Few Thoughts about the Course Robert Brink,2009-03 A Few Thoughts About the Course examines several key concepts from A Course in Miracles which show that our perspective on the world around us is mistaken These key concepts are the reversal of cause and effect the belief that ideas can leave their source and level confusion which also entails a belief that the mind is dependent on the body According to A Course in Miracles our perceptions resulting from the above phenomena show us a false picture What leads to our acceptance of the misperceptions resulting from these three false concepts is perception of a state of separation being separated from each other and separated from God A Few Thoughts About the Course examines the keys to understanding how the false perspective of the perception of separation can be undone so we can return to a remembrance of our oneness with God and with all of God s creation Robert Brink has avidly practiced and studied the content of A Course in Miracles since December of 1991 His lifelong dedication to Jesus request in the gospels to seek first the kingdom of God is based on an understanding that seek first means it must be the highest priority in life His unique perspective in this regard provides valuable insight into the spiritual nature of A Course in Miracles which is also enhanced and enriched through the content of several other divinely inspired works God Calling God at Eventide The Spirit of Findhorn Opening Doors Within The Living Word and The Living Silence The striking parallels shown between similar passages from these books and A Course in Miracles help illustrate the divine spiritual nature of A Course in Miracles and also bear witness to the author s own close personal relationship with Jesus A few thoughts on Psalm lxxi. 7 Ebenezer VINALL,1848 A few thoughts on a new plan of missionary exertions ... recommending the formation of a new society for this purpose, which might be denominated the British Missionary Society FEW THOUGHTS.,1814 A few thoughts upon the love and sacrifice of Jesus Christ, sent by a Well-wisher to religion, in a letter to his correspondent ,1765 A Few Thoughts about Shakespeare.
