A Comparative History of Religions James Clement Moffat, 1871      A Comparative History of Ideas Hajime Nakamura, 1992 Hajime Nakamura argues with remarkable erudition that particular intellectual and social developments can be traced in all great cultures that each culture deals with its problems in about the same order Discussing in their similarities and in their subtle differences ideas from India China Japan and Europe the author considers such inclusive notions as the concept of God the controversy over universals and the nature of orthodoxy and heterodoxy This is a lucid and rewarding book which sets a new standard for dealing with a history of thought across many cultures      The Serpent

"Ritual of the Dead," Egyptian Inscriptions, Papyri, and Monuments in the British and Continental Museums. By W. R. Cooper ... With Notes and Remarks by Dr. S. Birch, M. Renouf, M. Lenormant, S. M. Drach, Esq. and Other Egyptologists. Being a Paper Read Before the Victoria Institute ... With the Discussion. The Whole Illustrated with 129 Engravings Victoria Institute (LONDON), 1873      Immigration Policy from 1970 to the Present Rachel

Stevens, 2016-02-19 This book examines national debates on immigration asylum seekers and guest worker programs from 1970 to the present Over the past 45 years contemporary immigration has had a profound impact throughout North America Europe and Australasia yet the admission of ethnically diverse immigrants was far from inevitable In the midst of significant social change policymakers grappled with fundamental questions what is the purpose of immigration in an age of mass mobility Which immigrants should be selected and potentially become citizens and who should be excluded How should immigration be controlled in an era of universal human rights and non discrimination Stevens provides an in depth case study comparison of two settler societies Australia and the United States while drawing parallels with Europe Canada and New Zealand Though contemporary immigration history that focuses on one national setting is well established this book is unique because it actively compares how a number of societies debated vexing immigration policy challenges The book also explores the ideas values and principles that underpin this contentious area of public policy and in doing so permits a broader understanding of contemporary immigration than outlining policies alone      FACETS OF CONTEMPORARY

Comparative History of the Egyptian and Mesopotamian Religions Cornelis Petrus Tiele, 1882
Journal of the History of Ideas, 2006 An international quarterly devoted to intellectual history

Global History of Philosophy John C. Plott, Russell E. Hatton, 1993 This is the first in a series of five volumes on the global history of philosophy In this and subsequent volumes instead of the traditional division of western and non western philosophies each philosophy is seen in relation to global contemporaries throughout Eurasia Scholasticism should not be taken in the pejorative sense as the juggling of arguments by straw men but in the sense of a challenge even in our own era to work for consistent and comprehensive systematic synthesis All the older traditions need to be reinterpreted in terms of modern conditions which after all is what the Eurasian scholastics of these centuries were doing for their own time The major developments of this period are Monism in Many Moods during the ninth century through Exfoliation and Elaboration of those seminal systems in the tenth and eleventh centuries until the time of the Great Summas in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries It was during this time that philosophy and theology developed a very highly sophisticated technique of balancing arguments and refutations and counter arguments and counter refutations Most of these architectonic structurings were in the form of commentaries on basic handbook texts handed down as authoritative scripture In every culture of Eurasia systematic philosophy as well as intuitive wisdom had reached a high degree of sophistication from which it might be said that it has never quite completely recovered In terms of method seldom since has there been such thoroughness in treatment of every single topic with arguments and counter arguments architectonically juxtaposed and counter balanced into such a grand harmony As is true of the whole series these volumes are a new way of exploring the accumulative wisdom of mankind and in the process explode many of the ethnocentric stereotypes which still hinder intercultural communications and world peace through intercultural understanding Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd,2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like Jürgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies

Institutions of Confinement Norbert Finzsch,Robert Jütte,1996 A study of the development of prisons hospitals and insane asylums in America and Europe which grew out of discussions between its two editors about their work on the history of hospitals poor relief deviance and crime and a subsequent conference that attempted to assess the impacts of Foucault and Elias Seventeen contributors from six different countries with backgrounds in history sociology and criminology utilize various methodological approaches and reflect the various viewpoints in the theoretical debate over Foucault's work The International History of Communication Study Peter Simonson,David W. Park,2015-10-14 The International History of Communication Study maps the growth of media and communication studies around the world Drawing out transnational flows of ideas institutions publications and people it offers the most comprehensive picture to date of the global history of communication research and education This volume reaches into national and regional areas that have not received much attention in the scholarship until now including Asia Latin America Africa and the Middle East alongside Europe and North America It also covers communication study outside of academic settings in international organizations like UNESCO and among commercial and civic groups It moves beyond the traditional canon to cover work by forgotten figures including women scholars in the field and those outside of the United States and Europe and it situates them all within the broader geopolitical institutional and intellectual landscapes that have shaped communication study globally Intended for scholars and graduate students in communication media studies and journalism this volume pushes the history of communication study in new directions by taking an aggressively international and comparative perspective on the historiography of the field Methodologically and conceptually the volume breaks new ground in bringing comparative transnational and global frames to bear and puts under the spotlight what has heretofore only lingered in the penumbra of the history of communication study Annual Report American Historical Association,1930 A Handbook of the History of Philosophy Ernest Belfort Bax,1886 A Handbook of the History of Philosophy for the Use of Students Ernest Belfort Bax,1888 The American Liberal Tradition Reconsidered Mark Hulliung,2010 Eight prominent scholars consider whether Louis Hartz s interpretation of liberalism in his classic 1955 book should be repudiated or updated and whether a study of America as a liberal society is still a rewarding undertaking     Lectures on the History of Religions ... ,1912     Bulletin Northwestern University (Evanston, Ill.),1910
