A Constant Reminder Based On Historical Facts A Novel:

A Constant Reminder Isaac Charchat,1984 Based on historical facts The Politics of Remembrance in the Novels of Günter Grass Alex Donovan Cole,2022-11-30 This manuscript argues for the importance of Günter Grass as a political thinker in addition to his status as a novelist and public intellectual capable of forming ethical responses to contemporary issues like neoliberalism and place of the petit bourgeoisie in social life I define Grass s trajectory as a thinker through his novels and speeches Primarily I draw attention to the role memory plays in Grass s thought that his work represented an intellectual and aesthetic response to the role Nazism continued to play in West German politics in the post war era To Grass Nazism represented a resurgent threat unaddressed following the end of World War II Later Grass amended his concept of memory politics to address neoliberal capitalism reiterating his radicalism and affirming the need for German society to resist the rise of extreme ideologies Journal of the American Asiatic Association ,1922 Black Like You John Strausbaugh,2007-08-16 A refreshingly clearheaded and taboo breaking look at race relations reveals that American culture is neither Black nor White nor Other but a mix a mongrel Black Like You is an erudite and entertaining exploration of race relations in American popular culture Particularly compelling is Strausbaugh s eagerness to tackle blackface a strange often scandalous and now taboo entertainment Although blackface performance came to be denounced as purely racist mockery and shamefacedly erased from most modern accounts of American cultural history Black Like You shows that the impact of blackface on American culture was deep and long lasting Its influence can be seen in rock and hiphop in vaudeville Broadway and gay drag performances in Mark Twain and gangsta lit in the earliest filmstrips and the 2004 movie White Chicks on radio and television in advertising and product marketing and even in the way Americans speak Strausbaugh enlivens themes that are rarely discussed in public let alone with such candor and vision American culture neither conforms to knee jerk racism nor to knee jerk political correctness It is neither Black nor White nor Other but a mix a mongrel No history is best forgotten however uncomfortable it may be to remember The power of blackface to engender mortification and rage in Americans to this day is reason enough to examine what it tells us about our culture and ourselves Blackface is still alive Its impact and descendants including Black performers in whiteface can be seen all around us today Writing History in Late Imperial Russia Frances Nethercott,2019-12-26 An exploration of the various ways creative literature informed and shaped historical enquiry in late Imperial Russia Travelling Concepts Christian Lammert,Katja Sarkowsky,2009-12-03 Bhikhu Parekh As creative and reflective agents human beings seek meaning in their lives and develop more or less coherent views of the world or cultures in terms of which to organize their personal and collective lives When different groups of individuals within the same society subscribe to different ways of thought they face the crucial question of how to deal with their cultural diversity and sustain a shared common life Premodern societies took a relatively relaxed view of diversity and generally opted for a looser union Modernity brought with it a very different approach to the subject This is reflected in among other things the institution of the modern state especially the liberal democracy which represents one way of constituting it Liberal democracy has exercised a decisive influence on our political and moral imagination for the past three centuries Unlike premodern societies which took the community as their starting point and defined the individual in terms of it it takes the individual as the ultimate and irreducible unit of and thus conceptually and ontologically prior to society The latter is taken to consist of individuals and refers to the totality of its members and their formal and informal relationships Individuals are the sole and equal sources of moral claims and social and political institutions are judged in terms of their ability to safeguard and promote individual interests The American Monthly Review of Reviews ,1897 Telling the Truth Barbara C. Foley,2018-03-15 Barbara Foley here focuses on the relatively neglected genre of documentary fiction novels that are continually near the borderline between factual and fictive discourse She links the development of the genre over three centuries to the evolution of capitalism but her analyses of literary texts depart significantly from those of most current Marxist critics Foley maintains that Marxist theory has yet to produce a satisfactory theory of mimesis or of the development of genres and she addresses such key issues as the problem of reference and the nature of generic distinctions Among the authors whom Foley treats are Defoe Scott George Eliot Joyce Isherwood Dos Passos William Wells Brown Ishmael Reed and Ernest Gaines The Cumulative Book Index ,1986 A world list of books in the English language Making Black History Dominique Haensell,2021-10-04 This study proposes that rather than trying to discern the normative value of Afropolitanism as an identificatory concept politics ethics or aesthetics Afropolitanism may be best approached as a distinct historical and cultural moment that is a certain historical constellation that allows us to glimpse the shifting and multiple silhouettes which Africa as signifier as real and imagined locus embodies in the globalized yet predominantly Western cultural landscape of the 21st century As such Making Black History looks at contemporary fictions of the African or Black Diaspora that have been written and received in the moment of Afropolitanism Discursively this moment is very much part of a diasporic conversation that takes place in the US and is thus informed by various negotiations of blackness race class and cultural identity Yet rather than interpreting Afropolitan literatures merely as a rejection of racial solidarity as some commentators have they should be read as ambivalent responses to post racial discourses dominating the first decade of the 21st century particularly in the US which oscillate between moments of intense hope and acute disappointment Please read our interview with Dominique Haensell here <https://blog.degruyter.com/degruyters/10th-open-access-book-anniversary-dominique-haensell-and-her-winning-title-making-black-history> American Monthly Review of Reviews Albert Shaw,1897 St. Katherine's by the Tower Walter Besant,1891 The Review of Reviews ,1897 Popular Commentary of the Bible: The historical books Paul E. Kretzmann,1923 Over the years The Kretzmann Commentary has been widely received and praised for its simple clear explanation of the Bible in language easily understood by lay readers of the Bible Based on the King James Version of the Bible Kretzmann offers insights from Martin Luther and other faithful Lutheran scholars Warm accessible and not overly burdened by unrelated material these volumes will find a welcome place in the homes of all serious students of the Scriptures The Journal of Narrative Technique ,1997 Donald Ross of Heimra
