Demon at the Door Michael Arruda,2022-10-18 Demons come out at night I'd known that since I could first talk I remember this because I watched my first horror movie when I was three Scared the crap out of me Most fun 90 minutes I'd ever had in my young life But the information was clear The night was a bad and scary place Everything came out at night vampires monsters ghosts and especially demons It was not a good time to be alone which was why when my parents suggested that at 12 I was old enough to babysit my younger brother Tim who was 10 and my little sister Egg who was 8 I told them it was a bad idea Too many monsters So says twelve year old Dylan Holcomb moments before he and his younger brother and sister disappear from their home without a trace Special Agent Dani Cerra is assigned the case and to her chagrin the children's parents also hire Sean Ryan a former Catholic priest who now works as a paranormal investigator Together Cerra and Ryan follow the clues in a case which begins with the disappearance of three children from their home with no sign of forced entry or exit continues into the lurid arena of child abduction and ends with a journey into the supernatural world of demons a hellish realm filled with unceasing fires and tortures Michael Arruda has written a novel in which the human villains are every bit as horrifying as their demonic counterparts maybe even more so Demon at the Door is a tale of the supernatural a story of three children fighting for their lives against both human predators and demonic while a flawed FBI agent and a troubled paranormal investigator put their differences behind them and leave no stone unturned in their efforts to find and save the children Demon at the Door is horror author and movie critic Michael Arruda's second novel following his science fiction adventure Time Frame
