A Farewell To Arms Passion In Europe:

The Influence of the European Culture on Hemingway's Fiction , Silvia Ammary,2015-06-09 The Influence of the European Culture on Hemingway's Fiction is an essential companion to all those who study Hemingway The study deals with how Hemingway depicts Europe in his fiction not necessarily from a biographical point of view as most critical books have dealt with but how he assimilates to the culture of Europe how he portrays the different aspects of that culture in food music customs architecture and literature This study views Hemingway's stories and novels through a new lens by applying new critical developments emergent approaches and transnational studies to aid in a fuller understanding of Hemingway Europe for Hemingway was a land of discovery and one cannot study his major novels without analyzing this passion for these lands The Europe that Hemingway experienced and recorded in his writing serves as an important element in his fiction becoming the other an alien culture that was sufficiently different from his American roots Yet this otherness serves first to fulfill his psychological needs to learn and become one of the initiated through suffering whether it involves himself or the loss of other people around him The Hemingway Cookbook Craig Boreth,2012-09 More than 125 recipes from Ernest Hemingway's life and times are compiled in a cookbook enriched by dining passages from various works by the author family photographs personal correspondence and a contribution by his last wife Hotel Florida: Truth, Love, and Death in the Spanish Civil War Amanda Vaill,2014-04-22 A spellbinding story of love amid the devastation of the Spanish Civil War Madrid 1936 In a city blasted by a civil war that many fear will cross borders and engulf Europe a conflict one writer will call the decisive thing of the century Six people meet and find their lives changed forever Ernest Hemingway his career stalled his marriage sour hopes that this war will give him fresh material and new romance Martha Gellhorn an ambitious novice journalist hungry for love and experience thinks she will find both with Hemingway in Spain Robert Capa and Gerda Taro idealistic young photographers based in Paris want to capture history in the making and are inventing modern photojournalism in the process And Arturo Barea chief of Madrid's loyalist foreign press office and Ilsa Kulcsar his Austrian deputy are struggling to balance truth telling with loyalty to their sometimes compromised cause a struggle that places both of them in peril Hotel Florida traces the tangled wartime destinies of these three couples against the backdrop of a critical moment in history As Hemingway put it You could learn as much at the Hotel Florida in those years as you could anywhere in the world From the raw material of unpublished letters and diaries official documents and recovered reels of film Amanda Vaill has created a narrative of love and reinvention that is finally a story about truth finding it out telling it and living it whatever the cost
