Our Journey through Cancer with God is a chronicle of a pastor's wife and her husband as they confront her cancer. In this account, you will find their very real responses to God's interventions and her treatment as they navigate through the ups and downs of this disease. From September 15, there are sacred and often frightening times in life in which we are up against our own mortality and there's nowhere to flee except into the arms of God. It's here that we can touch, feel, and give gratitude for God's immense mercy. It's a place where there is no pretense and no bravado, just the soul touching God's mercy. In this, we cry for God's help. What prevails here is God's purpose for us, and to that, we cling.

Bob Bevier received his Doctor of Ministry degree in 1978. He was ordained as Minister of Word and Sacrament and has served as a pastor in several churches. Cancer Is Not My God Mollie Warner, 2019-04-04. Have you or someone you love received the words that we all dread to hear: "I'm sorry, but you have cancer." Suddenly, your entire life, present and future, has been turned upside down. Our minds would instantly be flooded with doubts and fears: How are we going to get through this? How will this affect my family? Am I going to die? And many, many more. I encourage you to read Mollie's story. Mollie, diagnosed with leukemia in 2015, asked herself these questions as her family began taking steps on their journey through the dark valley of cancer. Although plagued with doubts and fears, there was One who carried her family and gave them true hope, peace, comfort, and love as they walked through the valley: Jesus Christ, their Lord and Savior. Come and follow Mollie on her journey in her book Cancer Is Not My God. Transparent and honest about her pain and suffering, Mollie also shows how the Lord matures and strengthens her faith, teaching Mollie to put Him above any trial or suffering we will ever face.

A Walk with God David C Fuller, 2021-06-06. CANCER: The mere mention of this word invokes fear or dread. Most would not include the words: adventure, joy, peace, or gratitude to describe their emotional reaction. This book is about a journey through cancer and the experiences encountered. There are times of confusion and times of clarity, times of pain and times of comfort, feelings of helplessness and those of being blessed. The author says: "All through the journey, I have been guided by God's whispers, keeping me grounded in the knowledge that He desires full and complete recovery in my life and yours." This is a journey of joy and frustration, which will hopefully bring you peace, increase your faith, and give you a different perspective and attitude as you get this glimpse into how cancer affects a person's life. The author has been blessed with a positive attitude along with an unconventional sense of humor. These two things, along with his unshakable faith, enabled him to traverse the pitfalls that come so that healing could be possible. Join him on this journey. He says to you as God said to him in the beginning: "Let's go."
