Candles In Babylon:

Candles in Babylon Denise Levertov, 1982 Denise Levertov's Candles in Babylon evinces both the inner strength gained by a life of social commitment and the quiet wisdom born of solitude The seventy one poems in the book her first full collection since Life in the Forest 1978 are grouped into several thematic sections that explore by turns the subtleties in the shifting balance between our public and private selves the poet's voice ranging from the wry satire of her Pig Dreams sequence to the resonant grandeur of her six part Mass for the Day of St Thomas Didymus Behind it all is the gentle melancholy of the title poem and the poet's vision of peace Candles in Babylon Carmen L. B. Valdés, Graduate Theological Union, 2005

Denise Levertov Audrey T. Rodgers, 1993 Through careful analysis of Levertov's social verse she demonstrates that there is a consistency and pattern in what the artist herself has termed the poems of engagement Denise Levertov began her career in England as a lyric poet in the Romantic mode but even then was touched by the reductive nature of war revealed in her first published poem Listening to Distant Guns During the mid 1960s Levertov's social conscience notably her strong antiwar sentiment was reawakened by the Vietnam War This reawakening resulted in several volumes of poetry that mirrored her concerns with the war and political activism at home and her perplexity at the nature of human beings often great and compassionate but at times cruel and insensitive There exists a common thread in Levertov's pilgrimage from her beginning as a lyric poet to her status as an artist definitively in the world she has always responded to everything within the compass of her experience
