Marine Genetic Resources, R&D and the Law 1 Bleuenn Guilloux, 2018-06-21 Advances in research and development reveal the immense diversity and potential of marine genetic resources Under international law no specific regime applies to these complex and paradoxical objects of use The Law of the Sea Convention sets a framework that is partly inadequate for this new category of resources The Biodiversity Convention and the Nagoya Protocol only address the genetic resources of national areas Patents allow their holder to exercise a monopoly on exploiting biotechnological creations to extensive claims questioning the common nature of biodiversity and related knowledge They hinder research and the objectives of biodiversity law The legal and practical rules of physical and functional access vary in geometry They focus on the valorization of research results crystallizing conflicts of interest between suppliers and users Sustainable research and development is essential to the knowledge and protection of marine biodiversity The qualification of marine genetic resources in common standard contractual tools distributed research and development infrastructures negotiation of an agreement on sustainable use and conservation of biodiversity beyond the limits of national jurisdiction would To remove these inconsistencies

Alexander Von Humboldt Nicolaas A. Rupke, 2008-06 Alexander von Humboldt is one of the most celebrated figures of late modern science famous for his work in physical geography botanical geography and climatology This volume traces Humboldt's biographical identities through Germany's collective past to shed light on the historical instability of our scientific heroes

The Political History of Food Paul Ariès, 2023-07-04 How was human equality built across the table Why were the first great banquets at the origin of the communal goods of humanity Who after forcing men from eating bread wanted to forbid them chestnuts and popularized the potato The Egyptian food table invented the notion of symbols for food The Greek food table invented the notion of sharing The Roman food table invented the concept of pleasure How was the person caught eating and drinking alone punished Why did people die less of hunger in ancient times than in Africa in the 21st century Why in China do people eat round things to show their love How and why do we choose to eat this way Why do societies choose to express their unity through their conception of the food table Did the division in prehistoric societies first occur at the dinner table Did the first great civilizations make the food table a major political tool with the rationing and banqueting systems in Mesopotamia and Egypt Were the Gallic food tables swept away by the political alliance between the Catholic Church and the new masters coming from the great invasions Did the feudal politico religious system durably structure our food table Did absolute monarchy have to invent its own conception of the food table with music dance and architecture What were the great French revolutionary conceptions of the food table Did the philosophy of the Enlightenment change our conception of the food table Did the French Revolution impose a new way of eating with the adoption of the three fold table service and the banning of cuisine made with mixtures and knots Does the grammar of our food correspond to a social project Was Robespierre afraid of the great popular banquets Did the Republic enforce the eating of potatoes instead of the breadfruit tree the chestnut tree How was the myth of Parmentier imposed on schools What were the great food utopias in the history of the world Paul Ari s invites you on a gourmet journey from prehistory to the present day You will know almost everything about what our ancestors ate and drank The prehistoric food table the ancient food table the Gallic food table Paul Ari s shows how the tables of the world remain largely dependent on the tables of the past This political history of food is the result of thirty years of teaching and research Better known as a political scientist specializing in ecology than as a specialist of the food table Paul Ari s has been teaching since 1988 in the most prestigious international hotel schools He is the author of La fin des mangeurs DDB Les Fils de McDo L Harmattan and Manger sans peur Golias Bulletin ,2001
