Capital Castles:

Castles Charles Oman,1926 This book is the result of two most interesting if rather laborious journeys devoted to castle seeking one in 1924 covering Wales and the English counties along the Welsh border the other in 1925 devoted to Somerset Devon and Cornwall Of eighty castles described in full all but six were carefully inspected and recorded by my own note book and my son s photographs The object of this book is to explain the historical and architectural interest of each castle so that the visitor may appreciate its meaning v Preface

Castles in Medieval Society Charles Coulson,2004 In this challenging new book Charles Coulson overturns many of the traditional assumptions about the nature and purpose of castle building in the middle ages He demolishes the traditional belief that castles were overwhelmingly military in their function showing how this was simply one aspect of a more complicated whole He sets out to recreate the medieval understanding of castles as symbolically fortified places of all kinds from ancient walled post Roman towns and prestigious religious enclaves to transitory campaign forts Going back to the original sources Dr Coulson proposes a new and more subtle understanding of the function and symbolism of castles as well as vivid insights into the lives of the people who inhabited them Fortresses were only occasionally caught up in war but constantly were central to the ordinary life of all classes of the nobility and gentry of widows and heiresses of prelates and clergy of peasantry and townspeople alike Castles in Medieval Society presents and explores this broad social panorama

Rebuilding Lives After Genocide Linda Asquith,2019-03-27 This book examines how genocide survivors rebuild their lives following migration after genocide Drawing on a mixture of in depth interviews and published testimony it utilises Bourdieu s concept of social capital to highlight how individuals reconstruct their lives in a new country The data comprises in depth interviews with survivors of the Rwandan and Bosnian genocides and the Holocaust This combination of data allows for a broader analysis of the themes within the data Overall Rebuilding Lives After Genocide seeks to demonstrate that a constructivist grounded theoretical approach to research can draw attention to experiences that have been hidden and unheard The life of survivors in the wake of genocides is a neglected field particularly in the context of migration and resettlement Therefore this book provides a unique insight into the debate surrounding recovery from victimisation and the intersection between migration and victimisation

Crisis and Migration Anna Lindley,2014-07-11

Crisis and migration have a long association in popular and policy discourse as well as in social scientific analysis Despite the emergence of more nuanced and even celebratory accounts of mobility in recent years there remains a persistent emphasis on migration being either a symptom or a cause of crisis Moreover in the context of a recent series of headline hitting and politically controversial situations terms like migration crisis and crisis migration are acquiring increasing currency among policy makers and academics Crisis and Migration provides fresh perspectives on this routine association critically examining a series of politically controversial situations around the world Drawing on first hand research into the Arab uprisings conflict and famine in the Horn of Africa cartel violence in Latin America the global economic crisis and immigration crises from East Asia to Southern Africa to Europe the book s contributors situate a set of contemporary crises within longer histories of social change and human mobility showing the importance of treating crisis and migration as contextualised processes rather than isolated events By exploring how migration and crisis articulate as lived experiences and political constructs the book brings migration from the margins to the centre of discussions of social transformation and crisis illuminates the acute politicisation and diverse spatialisations of crisis migration relationships and urges a nuanced cautious and critical approach to associations of crisis and migration

Lost in Mobility? Indre Genelyte,2018-10-24 This thesis seeks to make both theoretical and empirical contributions to the understanding of intra EU mobility with a focus on labour migration from Lithuania to Sweden Inspired by a critical realist perspective the thesis aims to help to explain the dynamics and individual decision making behind mass labour emigration from the Baltic states its socioeconomic consequences and policy responses Theoretically the thesis proposes a model that synthesizes a social transformation approach with an extended version of Hirschman s analytical framework of exit voice and loyalty The three empirical articles based mainly on semi structured interviews are situated within this framework Two of the articles seek to explain the migrants decision making process of stay exit entrance in the context of the structural institutional social changes that followed 1 independence from the Soviet Union in 1990 2 EU accession in 2004 and 3 the 2008 2009 economic crisis with austerity The third article brings into the debate the perspective of the sending Baltic countries in a broader context of the East West migration debate The dissertation shows that the consequences of the neoliberal policies of the post communist and post crisis transformations together with the construction of formal migration channels after EU accession constitute various migrant categories Individual strategies of actively looking for channels to exit and enter combining them in different ways at various points of the migratory process and establishing informal social networks are re constituting who can be and who is a migrant Furthermore following the economic crisis and austerity measures the decision to emigrate extends beyond individual survival strategies instead becoming bound to an individual s perception of the ine quality of life and pursuit of a better quality of life for oneself and one s family across time and in different places Finally as the interviewed Baltic experts agree the EU s policy of the free movement is socially and economically problematic although the official Baltic states policy responses focus primarily on talented and needed diaspora members return or engagement These policies have proved to be inadequate to address demographic and socioeconomic challenges in part brought about by emigration The structural institutional conditions states and migrants strategies engender mobility as a social norm in the sending countries and promote and constitute the perpetuation of migration of both precarious labour migrants and active talented EU mobile citizens Avhandlingen avser att bidra b de teoretiskt och empiriskt till kad kunskap om den fria rrligheten inom EU med fokus p arbetskraftmigration fr n Litauen till Sverige Inspirerad av kritisk realism som samh llsvetenskaplig metod r syftet att bidra till att f rklara s v l dynamiken i som det individuella beslutsfattandet bakom den omfattande arbetsutvandringen fr n de baltiska staterna samt att diskutera dess socioekonomiska konsekvenser och politiska inverkan Teoretiskt utg r avhandlingen fr n en modell som syntetiserar social transformation med en utstr ckt version av Hirschmans analytiska ramverk f r sorti protest och lojalitet De tre empiriska artiklarna som huvudsakligen bygger p semistrukturerade djupintervjuer ligger inom detta ramverk Tv av artiklarna syftar till att f rklara migranternas beslutsprocess i fr ga om stay exit entrance mot bakgrund av de strukturella och institutionella sociala f r ndrningarna som f ljde av 1 sj lvst ndighetsf rklaringen fr n Sovjetunionen 1990 2 anslutningen till EU 2004 och 3 den ekonomiska krisen 2008 2009 med f ljande tstramningar Den tredje artikeln f r in de baltiska l ndernas eget perspektiv i den bredare st v stliga migrationsdebatten Avhandlingen visar att f ljdena av den postkommunistiska neoliberala politiken och omvandlingen efter den ekonomiska krisen tillsammans med uppbygggnaden av formella migrationskanaler efter anslutningen till EU bidrar till att skapa olika migrantkategorier Individuella strategier f r att aktivt leta efter kanaler f r exit och enter kombinera dem p olika s tt och utifr n olika stadier i migrationsprocessen samt etablera informella sociala n tverk bidrar till att re konstituera vem som kan vara och vem som r en migrant Vidare efter den
