C. Beaglehole,1992-04-01 The culmination of the life work of the most distinguished historian of Pacific exploration this lavishly illustrated biography places Cook in the context of his times and affirms his eminence in the history of maritime discovery

A Voyage Towards the South Pole and Round the World James Cook,2015-12-28 1772 April I sailed from Deptford April 9th 1772 but got no farther than Woolwich where I was detained by easterly winds till the 23d when the ship fell down to Long Reach and the next day was joined by the Adventure Here both ships received on board their powder guns gunners stores and marines 1772 May On the 10th of May we left Long Reach with orders to touch at Plymouth but in plying down the river the Resolution was found to be very crank which made it necessary to put into Sheerness in order to remove this evil by making some alteration in her upper works These the officers of the yard were ordered to take in hand immediately and Lord Sandwich and Sir Hugh Palliser came down to see them executed in such a manner as might effectually answer the purpose intended 1772 June On the 22d of June the ship was again completed for sea when I sailed from Sheerness and on the 3d of July joined the Adventure in Plymouth Sound The evening before we met off the Sound Lord Sandwich in the Augusta yacht who was on his return from visiting the several dock yards with the Glory frigate and Hazard sloop We saluted his lordship with seventeen guns and soon after he and Sir Hugh Palliser gave us the last mark of the very great attention they had paid to this equipment by coming on board to satisfy themselves that every thing was done to my wish and that the ship was found to answer to my satisfaction At Plymouth I received my instructions dated the 25th of June directing me to take under my command the Adventure to make the best of my way to the island of Madeira there to take in a supply of wine and then proceed to the Cape of Good Hope where I was to refresh the ships companies and to take on board such provisions and necessaries as I might stand in need of After leaving the Cape of Good Hope I was to proceed to the southward and endeavour to fall in with Cape Circumcision which was said by Monsieur Bouvet to lie in the latitude of 54 S and in about 11 20 E longitude from Greenwich If I discovered this cape I was to satisfy myself whether it was a part of the continent which had so much engaged the attention of geographers and former navigators or a part of an island If it proved to be the former I was to employ myself diligently in exploring as great an extent of it as I could and to make such notations thereon and observations of every kind as might be useful either to navigation or commerce or tend to the promotion of natural knowledge I was also directed to observe the genius temper disposition and number of the inhabitants if there were any and endeavour by all proper means to cultivate a friendship and alliance with them making them presents of such things as they might value inviting them to traffic and shewing them every kind of civility and regard I was to continue to employ myself on this service and making discoveries either to the eastward or westward as my situation might render most eligible keeping in as high a latitude as I could and prosecuting my discoveries as near to the South Pole as possible so long as the condition of the ships the health of their crews and the state of their provisions would admit of taking care to reserve as much of the latter as would enable me to reach some known port where I was to procure a sufficiency to bring me home to England But if Cape Circumcision should prove to be part of an island only or if I should not be able to find the said Cape I was in the first case to make the necessary survey of the island and then to stand on to the southward so long as I judged there was a likelihood of falling in with the continent which I was also to do in the latter case and then to proceed to the eastward in further search of the said continent as well as to make discoveries of such islands as might be situated in that unexplored part of the southern hemisphere keeping in high latitudes and prosecuting my discoveries as above mentioned as near the pole as possible until I had circumnavigated the globe after which I was to proceed to the Cape of Good Hope and from thence to Spithead

Captain Cook's Voyages of Discovery James Cook,1906 The Life of Captain James Cook Arthur

Kitson,2015-12-28 James Cook the Circumnavigator was a native of the district of Cleveland Yorkshire but of his ancestry there is now very little satisfactory information to be obtained Nichols in his Topographer and Genealogist suggests that James Cooke the celebrated mariner was probably of common origin with the Stockton Cookes His reason for the suggestion being that a branch of the family possessed a crayon portrait of some relation which was supposed to resemble the great discoverer He makes no explanation of the difference in spelling of the two names and admits that the sailor s family was said to come from Scotland Dr George Young certainly the most reliable authority on Cook s early years who published a Life in 1836 went to Whitby as Vicar about 1805 and claims to have obtained much information about his subject through intercourse with his relatives friends and acquaintances including one or two surviving school companions and appears to be satisfied that Cook was of Scotch extraction Dr George Johnston a very careful writer states in his Natural History of the Eastern Borders that in 1692 the father of James Thomson the author of The Seasons was minister of Ednam Roxburghshire and a man named John Cook was one of the Elders of the Kirk This John Cook married on the 19th January 1693 a woman named Jean Duncan by whom he had a son James baptised 4th March 1694 and this child Johnston positively asserts was afterwards the father of the future Captain Cook The dates of the marriage and baptism have been verified by the Reverend

John Burleigh minister of Ednam and they agree with the probable date of the birth of Cook's father for he died in 1778 at the age of eighty five Owing to the loss of the church records for some years after 1698 Mr Burleigh is unable to trace when this James Cook left Ednam to better himself but he would take with him a testificate of church membership which might possibly but not probably still exist Attracted perhaps by the number of Scotch people who flocked into the north of Yorkshire to follow the alum trade then at its height James Cook settled down and married and the first positive information to be obtained is that he and his wife Grace her maiden name has so far escaped identification though she is known to have been a native of Cleveland resided for some time at Morton in the parish of Ormsby and here their eldest child John was born in January 1727 Dr Young says that James Cook had a superstition that his mother's farewell was prophetic of his marriage for her words were God send you Grace

A New, Authentic Collection of Captain Cook's Voyages round the World ... Written by several principal officers, and other gentlemen who sailed in the various ships. [With a portrait.] James Cook, 1786 The Ships and Sailors of Old Salem Ralph Delahaye Paine, 1909 Captain Cook's Voyages Round the World James Cook, 1790 Voyages round the World, performed by Captain James Cook ... [The abridgment of G. W. Anderson.] Embellished with engravings James Cook, 1820 Captain Cook's Merchant Ships Stephen Baines, 2015-08-03 While the story of Endeavour is widely known Captain Cook sailed with eight ships which began their lives as merchant vessels This detailed illustrated history tells the story of these vessels and the people who sailed in them In placing these ships and people in the personal political social financial scientific and religious contexts of their times this book provides a comprehensive and readable account of the long eighteenth century Using contemporary sources this gripping narrative fills a gap in Cook history and attempts to catch something of the exciting violent gossipy but largely untaught and unknown period through which these vessels and their people sailed literally and figuratively between the old world and the new

Captain Cook's Journal During His First Voyage Round the World Made in H.M. Bark "Endeavour", 1768-71 James Cook, 1893 Den engelske opdagelsesrejsende James Cooks 1728 1779 dagbog fra hans f rste rejse til Sydhavet The Voyages of Captain James Cook James Cook, 1842 Journal of Captain Cook's Last Voyage to the Pacific Ocean, on Discovery James Cook, 1781 The Ships of Peace Basil Mathews, 1919 The Last Voyage of Captain James Cook Richard Hough, 1979 Recreates in detail Captain Cook's third and last great voyage of discovery delineating the paradoxical characters of the officers of the two ships many exotic ports of call and the series of mishaps follies and misunderstandings that led to Cook's murder
