Captive of Fate is the moving story of Ann a victim of her own need for genuine love and her gullibility in falling head over heels into the traps of lust set up by clever men As Ann s biographic narrative unfolds the reader is faced again and again with the haunting question Do all men want only one thing from a woman Hidden between the lines and yet hammering constantly at the reader s conscience are issues pertaining to gender violence and the plight of women in Africa

Giving Connie life was one thing her mother Mary Law could do for her daughter on that desperately sun drenched day in 1835 Her bedroom door barely kept the sand out and couldnt mask the drunken party below or Marys weak screams and anguished cries Zack Law was furious when he learned Mary had delivered a beautiful healthy girl that day He cursed at Mary Connie and the doctor then abruptly rode away Here then is the story of Connie Law the prettiest female most men have ever seen Some said she was ruthless a killer and too bold others found her a gentle and caring soul Her hair was golden sunlight and her eyes were the color of the sea She rode the winds of hell to rewrite her history Connie was quiet She could fool some but make no mistake she was good with her guns Mary Law left her home in Maine and traveled to Texas with her young husband and would become a prisoner of his deceit and treachery She gave Zack five sons and her husband would own them all Zackary Law had a hatred for women and if he loved anything it was money Connie and Mary suffered painfully at the hands of Zack until he and his three eldest sons were killed in an Indian attack which would change the town of Murder Creek forever The raid took Connie and several other girls from their homes and families They would learn the laws of survival or die Lengends And Lyrics Adelaide A.
