Preaching John F. MacArthur, Master's Seminary Faculty, 2005-08-21 Many sermons preached today lack the divine knowledge and spiritual understanding available only through dynamic expository preaching In Preaching How to Preach Biblically John MacArthur well known passion for the Bible combines with the expertise of faculty members at The Master's Seminary to inspire and equip preachers in effective biblical preaching Preaching How to Preach Biblically flows from biblical foundations for expository preaching through a detailed process of developing expositions and creating sermons to the actual delivery of expository messages connecting what pastors learn in seminary with the sermons preached in a local church This volume shows how to progress purposefully from one phase to the next in preparing to minister to God's people through preaching This book answers these questions and more What is expository biblical preaching What are the theological and historical foundations for insisting on expository preaching What are the steps involved in preparation for and participation in biblical preaching What models exist for expository preaching today The Master's Seminary faculty with over thirty years experience in preaching and seminary training of preachers contributes a treasury of expertise alongside insights from expositor John MacArthur While united on their commitment to exposition the variety of individual expressions and methodological preferences discussed offers beneficial assistance for any preacher seeking a higher level of expository excellence News, a Consumer's Guide Ivan Doig, Carol Doig, 1972 A Consumer's Guide to Educational Innovations
