Day Gone By Richard Adams,2014-12-05 Richard Adams author of Watership Down and described recently as a legend of literature was born in Newbury in 1920 as the replacement for a baby brother who died in the great influenza epidemic of 1917-19. His mother was well over 40 at the time of his birth and his was a solitary childhood spent in a large garden. Here he explains how his days spent watching bird beetles and wild creatures around his home engendered in him a lifelong love of nature. His years at prep and public school at Oxford and in the army are all vividly described and their influence on the recurrent themes in his writing of battle leadership, friendship, bullying, solitude and longing made plain. Bulletin, 1908
