

DEATH OF INNOCENCE

The Bogside Artists - 2000

Here the innocence of a child's world contrasts vividly with the chaotic violence with which others have surrounded her. The mural commemorates fourteen year old Annette McGavigan who was shot by a British soldier in 1971, the 100th victim of the Troubles and one of the first children to be killed. The little coloured stones at her feet are objects that she was collecting for a school project. The broken gun signals a call for an end to violence. The butterfly and the crucifix are symbols of innocence and rebirth. Annette stands for all the children who have died through violence during the Troubles.

Our challenge was to take such a heart-rending event as the brutal death of a young girl and make it the plea for peace and sanity.

A Death Of Innocence:

Adopting the Song of Expression: An Psychological Symphony within A Death Of Innocence

In a world eaten by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of fast communication, the melodic elegance and mental symphony produced by the prepared word usually diminish in to the backdrop, eclipsed by the relentless sound and interruptions that permeate our lives. However, situated within the pages of A Death Of Innocence an enchanting fictional treasure brimming with natural thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a masterful composer of language, this charming masterpiece conducts viewers on a psychological journey, well unraveling the hidden tunes and profound influence resonating within each carefully constructed phrase. Within the depths with this moving assessment, we shall examine the book is main harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing fashion, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
