A Farm In Chianti:

Italian Farm Vacations Touring Club of Italy, 2003 A new title in the Touring Club of Italy's Dolce Vita series Italian Farm Vacations shows travelers how to sample the classic pleasures of Italian country life Sites range from rustic working farms and villas to elegant castles and wineries with accommodations from simple bed and breakfast to separate houses Visitors can expect a warm welcome and a high level of hospitality at these typically family run operations The farm experience may include dining with the host family assisting in the grape harvest or merely enjoying the beauty and serenity of the countryside In addition travelers may pursue individual interests such as horseback riding swimming mountain biking and hiking Rates at these lodgings fall well below the cost of a stay at an average hotel in major cities such as Florence Siena or Venice yet many of the farms are located close enough for day trips to these historic cities Organized by region with detailed area maps and in depth information on every accommodation including prices directions and nearby attractions Italian Farm Vacations helps travelers plan a vacation that will truly capture the rural Italian experience Europe's Living Landscapes Bas Pedrolí, Anne van Doorn, Geert de Blust, 2014-12-22 This book is the result of three symposia of the Dutch Society for Landscape Ecology The first symposium in 2005 was about the National Ecological Network in the Netherlands The reason was that the implementation of the NEN decided upon in 1990 was halfway The second symposium in 2006 was about urban ecology and the third one to be held in 2007 will be about civil infrastructure This book does not cover the conferences completely and new contributions are added The three themes are important contexts in which landscape ecologists do their research and apply their knowledge and skills Of course there are many more subjects to hold conferences about for example climate change urbanisation agriculture landscape ecology itself etc The focus of the conferences is on the Netherlands with its urbanisation intensive land use and water management as characteristic features Although many WLO members do their work abroad or in an international context these conferences offer a window on what happens in the Dutch context The experiences may be of value for other contexts and that is why we present the results in English The selected themes and the focus on the Dutch context are serious demarcations of what landscape ecology in the Netherlands is all about The book does not represent all research and applications of landscape ecology The Finest Wines of Tuscany and Central Italy Nicholas Belfrage, 2009-09-14 The wines of Tuscany were famous long before Leonardo da Vinci described them as bottled sunshine and they are at the forefront of the remarkable renaissance of Italian wine over the past 30 years In this groundbreaking new book Nicolas Belfrage shares his insider's knowledge acquired as a specialist wine trader and writer Mindful of the region's fascinating past Belfrage brings its story up to date discussing such subjects as geology and geography grape varieties and the latest research into Sangiovese the variety used in the top wines of Chianti Classico Brunello di Montalcino and Vino Nobile di Montepulciano He also clarifies the regulatory framework and follows the recent controversial developments in viticulture and winemaking including the rise of the Super Tuscans and the ongoing

Brunellogate scandal that broke in 2008 At the heart of the book are in depth illustrated profiles of more than 90 of the most interesting producers large and small with insightful notes on the essential character of their finest wines The author also offers a comprehensive review of vintages and selects his top 100 wines in ten different categories while wines of special quality or value are indicated throughout Walks & People in Tuscany Sir Francis Patrick Fletcher Vane (Bart),1910
