Canto Castrato:

The Columbia Guide to the Latin American Novel Since 1945 Raymond L. Williams, 2007-09-21 In this expertly crafted richly detailed guide Raymond Leslie Williams explores the cultural political and historical events that have shaped the Latin American and Caribbean novel since the end of World War II In addition to works originally composed in English Williams covers novels written in Spanish Portuguese French Dutch and Haitian Creole and traces the profound influence of modernization revolution and democratization on the writing of this era Beginning in 1945 Williams introduces major trends by region including the Caribbean and U S Latino novel the Mexican and Central American novel the Andean novel the Southern Cone novel and the novel of Brazil He discusses the rise of the modernist novel in the 1940s led by Jorge Luis Borges s reaffirmation of the right of invention and covers the advent of the postmodern generation of the 1990s in Brazil the Generation of the Crack in Mexico and the McOndo generation in other parts of Latin America An alphabetical guide offers biographies of authors coverage of major topics and brief introductions to individual novels It also addresses such areas as women s writing Afro Latin American writing and magic realism The guide s final section includes an annotated bibliography of introductory studies on the Latin American and Caribbean novel national literary traditions and the work of individual authors From early attempts to synthesize postcolonial concerns with modernist aesthetics to the current focus on urban violence and globalization The Columbia Guide to the Latin American Novel Since 1945 presents a comprehensive accessible portrait of a thoroughly diverse and complex branch of world literature
