the part of the respondents not to bring within the ambit of inquiry the regular incumbent Shri Sarat Chandra Bal, contributing to such fraud.

- ix) In sum and substance, the grounds urged by the applicant are that the fraud which has been committed by Shri Balabantray, while working as SPM, Bhubanipur SO being actuated with contributory negligence, there are other officials who had contributed to this and not the applicant only. 4. Per contra, the respondents have filed a detailed counter opposing the prayer of the applicant. According to respondents, since the applicant did not discharge his duty properly, he cannot be absolved of his responsibilities by pointing out the fault on others. Had he carried out his assigned duties diligently and brought the irregularities to the notice of his immediate supervisor, necessary follow up action could have been taken in time as a result of which Shri Naradenra Kumar Balabantray could not have got scope to misappropriate Government money. Respondents have pointed out that the applicant kept himself away from the basic work of justifying retention of excess balance by Shri Balabantray for a long period which is totally in contravention of the provisions of Rule-102 of Postal Manual Volume-VI, Part-III. This action facilitated occurrence of fraud by Shri Balabantray. It has been stated that the applicant was proceeded against under Rule-16 of CCS(CCA) Rules, 1965. In consideration of his representation and on carefully scrutiny of the relevant documents/records, the Disciplinary Authority held the applicant guilty of the charge and awarded the punishment of recovery of proportionate amount of Rs.32,923/- from the salary of the applicant. The appeal preferred by the applicant was also rejected by the Appellate Authority as devoid of merit.
