

THE SKUNK NAMED ZORRI . . .

When we first met Zorri, she was a tiny, black and white ball of fur, no bigger than a mouse. She was so small that we had to hold her in our hands. She was so shy that she hid under the bed for days. But she was so sweet that we couldn't help but love her. She was the most beautiful little skunk I have ever seen. She was the most loving and affectionate skunk I have ever known. She was the most intelligent and curious skunk I have ever met. She was the most playful and mischievous skunk I have ever had. She was the most loyal and devoted skunk I have ever loved. She was the most wonderful and amazing skunk I have ever known. She was the most beautiful and loving skunk I have ever seen. She was the most intelligent and curious skunk I have ever met. She was the most playful and mischievous skunk I have ever had. She was the most loyal and devoted skunk I have ever loved. She was the most wonderful and amazing skunk I have ever known.
