

Sportsmen in Spain

Superdramatic follow, with one year's eight-months length, give reports on boxing matches which are not battles

by EDUARDO JAYEN

For those readers who are tired of reading those American sports papers which are so full of news about the American sports scene, I would like to suggest that you read the Spanish sports papers. They are full of news about the Spanish sports scene, and they are full of news about the Spanish sports scene.

Boxing in Spain

Boxing in Spain is the most popular sport of the country. It is a very old sport, and it has a long history. The Spaniards love to watch boxing matches, and they are very interested in the results.

"What this fellow is one of our walking beauties?"

of those scenes, they fought and fought harder, more.

That first scene was important. "What's the deal?"

And they were not finished. "What's the deal?"

"What's the deal?"

As the fight progressed, it was very long and hard, and they were not finished. "What's the deal?"
