

The background of the poster is a dark, starry night sky. In the center, a large, glowing blue and white structure resembling a castle or a tower is visible. The structure has several red circular accents. In the foreground, a golden chalice or trophy is placed on a small patch of ground. The overall aesthetic is magical and ethereal.

West, 2025-01-14 Rikki West s tale begins with her Catholic childhood in a Chicago suburb As a little girl she prays for her drunk father begging God not to send him to hell As a rebellious adolescent she abandons religion yet she yearns to connect with something more loving and peaceful than the human mind As a teen on the California coast in the 1960s she seeks union with higher consciousness through drugs and mantra repetition And as a young woman studying at UC Berkeley she gives up spiritual matters and shifts her trust to science as the only reliable truth But something is missing for her and when she launches her career in Silicon Valley the drinking culture forces her to confront her own demons Relying on Alcoholics Anonymous and therapy to stay sober Rikki gravitates to Eastern spirituality to find her genuine self and relationship to the universe But after years of fasting chanting and praying she still finds herself seeking more and ultimately it is only when she throws overboard all her notions of God and truth that something unexpected and wonderful blossoms in her world
