19th-Century Poetics of Naturalized Architecture LaurenS. Weingarden,2017-07-05 For most of the twentieth century modernist viewers dismissed the architectural ornament of Louis H Sullivan 1856 1924 and the majority of his theoretical writings as emotional outbursts of an outmoded romanticism In this study Lauren Weingarden reveals Sullivan s eloquent articulation of nineteenth century romantic practices literary linguistic aesthetic spiritual and nationalistic and thus rescues Sullivan and his legacy from the narrow role imposed on him as a pioneer of twentieth century modernism Using three interpretive models discourse theory poststructural semiotic analysis and a pragmatic concept of sign functions she restores the integrity of Sullivan s artistic choices and his historical position as a culminating figure within nineteenth century romanticism By giving equal weight to Louis Sullivan s writings and designs Weingarden shows how he translated both Ruskin s tenets of Gothic naturalism and Whitman s poetry of the American landscape into elemental structural forms and organic ornamentation Viewed as a site where various romantic discourses converged Sullivan s oeuvre demands a cross disciplinary exploration of each discursive practice and its rules of accumulation exclusion reactivation The overarching theme of this study is the interrogation and restitution of those Foucauldian rules that enabled Sullivan to articulate architecture as a pictorial mode of landscape art which he considered co equal with the spiritual and didactic functions of landscape poetry The Tender Detail Daniel E. Snyder,2020-06-25 The Tender Detail tells a story about the repression of sentimentality through architectural ornament The protagonists are Louis H Sullivan and Frank Lloyd Wright two of the most important architects and designers of ornament in American history Interweaving close readings of their architecture and writings with wide ranging discussions about sexuality gender and philosophy the book explores how both men worked to solve the problem of late nineteenth century ornamentation It suggests that their solutions while widely different were both intimately rooted in the tender emotions of sentimentality Viewing ornament in this way reveals much not only about Sullivan and Wright s artistic intentions but also about the role of affect the value of beauty and the agency and ontology of objects Illuminated by personal stories from their respective autobiographies which add a level of human interest unusual in an academic work The Tender Detail is a readable scholarly study which sheds fresh light on Sullivan and Wright s relationship their work and on the nature of ornament itself

The Orchestration of the Arts – A Creative Symbiosis of Existential Powers M. Kronegger, 2013-03-09 Regardless of the subject matter our studies are always searching for a sense of the universal in the specific Drawing etchings and paintings are a way of communicating ideas and emotions The key word here is to communicate Whether the audience sees the work as laborious or poetic depends on the creative genius of the artist Some painters use the play of light passing through a landscape or washing over a figure to create an evocative moment that will be both timeless and transitory The essential role of art remains what is has always been a way of human expression This is the role that our participants concentrate on as they discuss art as the expression of the spirit a creative act through which the artist makes manifest what is within him Spirit suggests the unity of feeling and thought Avoiding broad generalities our participants address specific areas in orchestration with music architecture literature and phenomenology Profs Souiller Scholz Etlin Sweetser Josephs show us at what point art is an intimate profound expression and the magic of a civilization as a whole springing from its evolving thoughts and embodying ideals such as the Renaissance the Baroque Modernism and at what point it reflects the transformation of a particular society and its mode of life
