Introduction to an African Philosophy Ferdinand Mutaawe Kasozi, 2011 By offering a topical rather historical presentation of a unique African philosophical reflection on physical and immaterial reality the author of this book underscores the relevance of African systems of thought to philosophy Consequently the book centres on four focal issues What are the meanings of Ntu ology and Baganda Ntu ology Does the Ntu ology of the Baganda offer an inimitable description of being time and space What is the Baganda Ntu ological impression of the human being knowledge relations and destiny as well as of human and spiritual beings interconnections How does the Ntu ology of the Baganda portray the modality of being and values This text should give scholars an introduction to yet another African philosophical system of thought African Philosophy Essential Read Tsenay Serequeberhan, 1991 The eleven papers in this anthology all by Africans represent a variety of philosophical positions that are central to the debate in and on African philosophy as it has developed thus far An introduction essay explores the historical political and existential context of the debate and is followed by a presentation of the documentary orientation ethnophilosophy The five papers that follow articulate positions that reject ethnophilosophy and emphasize its scientific approach to philosophy Finally the last four papers articulate philosophical positions reflecting the historicity of the African situation Throughout the anthology is informed by the belief that African philosophy is a historically engaged activity aimed at the political empowerment of the African people Many of the papers in African Philosophy are either published here or in English for the first time or are not easily available in English anywhere else An Introduction to African Philosophy M.
