African Theater Today:

African Theatre Today Martin Banham, Clive Wake, 1976 African Theatre Martin Banham, James Morel Gibbs, James Gibbs, Femi Osofisan, 2001 This second annual volume in the African Theatre series focuses on the intersection of politics and theatre in Africa today Topics include the remarkable collaboration between Horse and Bamboo a puppet theatre company based in the United Kingdom and Nigerian playwright Sam Ukala that was inspired by the infamous execution of Nigerian playwright Ken Saro Wiwa and other Ogoni activists the plays of Femi Osofisan and plays by Ghanaian playwrights Joe de Graft and Mohammed Ben Abdallah African Theatre features the work of Mauritian playwright Dev Virahsawmy and includes an interview with him reviews of an English production of his play Toufann as well as the translated playscript Reports of workshops and conferences reviews and news of the year in African theatre make this volume a valuable resource for anyone interested in current issues in African drama and performance

Women, Politics and Performance in South African Theatre Today Lizbeth Goodman, 2012-10-02 First published in 1999 Women Politics and Performance in South African Theatre Today is an important contribution to Performance African Theatre Today Martin Banham, Clive Wake, 1976

Trends in Twenty-First-Century African Theatre and Performance Kene Igweonu, 2011 Trends in Twenty First Century African Theatre and Performance is a collection of regionally focused articles on African theatre and performance The volume provides a broad exploration of the current state of African theatre and performance and considers the directions they are taking in the 21st Century It contains sections on current trends in theatre and performance studies on applied community theatre and on playwrights The chapters have evolved out of a working group process in which papers were submitted to peer group scrutiny over a period of four years at four international conferences The book will be particularly useful as a key text for undergraduate and postgraduate courses in non western theatre and performance where this includes African theatre and performance and would be a very useful resource for theatre scholars and anyone interested in African performance forms and cultures

Routledge Handbook of African Theatre and Performance Kene Igweonu, 2024-06-10 The Routledge Handbook of African Theatre and Performance brings together the very latest international research on the performing arts across the continent and the diaspora into one expansive and wide ranging collection The book offers readers a compelling journey through the different ideas people and practices that have shaped African theatre and performance from pre colonial and colonial times right through to the 20th and early 21st centuries Resolutely Pan African and inter national in its coverage the book draws on the expertise of a wide range of Africanist scholars and also showcases the voices of performers and theatre practitioners working on the cutting edge of African theatre and performance practice Contributors aim to answer some of the big questions about the content nature form and context processes practice of theatre whilst also painting a pluralistic and complex picture of the diversity of cultural political and artistic exigencies across the continent Covering a broad range of themes including postcolonialism transnationalism interculturalism Afropolitanism development and the diaspora the handbook concludes by projecting possible future directions for African theatre and performance as we continue to advance into the 21st century and beyond This ground breaking new handbook will be essential reading for students and researchers studying theatre and performance practices across Africa and the diaspora The Cambridge Guide to African and Caribbean Theatre Martin Banham, Errol Hill, George Woodyard, 1994-08-04 Comprehensive alphabetical guide to theatre in Africa and the Caribbean national essays and entries on countries and performers In Search of African Theatre Scott Kennedy, 1973 African Theatre Martin Banham, David Kerr, 2004 Articles and interviews on theatre in Southern Africa include the familiar territory of South Africa and Zimbabwe but also countries which have received little previous attention such as Angola and Namibia The articles range from evaluations of single plays to accounts of play making processes theatre for development and the relationship between modern drama and indigenous performance Africa Today, 2001 African Theatre N. B. East, 1970 The World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre: Africa Don Rubin, 1994 South African Theatre Journal, 2005

South African Theatre As/and Intervention Marcia Blumberg, Dennis Walder, 1999 One of the most striking features of cultural life in South Africa has been the extent to which one area of cultural practice theatre has more than any other testified to the present condition of the country now in transition between its colonial past and a decolonized future But in what sense and how far does the critical force of theatre in South Africa as a mode of intervention continue In the immediate post election moment theatre seemed to be pursuing an escapist nostalgic route relieved of its historical burden of protest and opposition But as the contributors to this volume show new voices have been emerging and a more complex politics of the theatre involving feminist and gay initiatives physical theatre festival theatre and theatre for education has become apparent Both new and familiar players in South African theatre studies from around the world here respond to or anticipate the altered conditions of the country while exploring the notion that theatre continues to intervene This broad focus enables a wide and stimulating range of approaches contributors examine strategies of intervention among audiences theatres established and fledgling writers canonical and new texts traditional and innovative critical perspectives The book concludes with four recent interviews with influential practitioners about the meaning and future of theatre in South Africa Athol Fugard Fatima Dike Reza de Wet and Janet Suzman Africa Now, 1982 The East African Experience Ulla Schild, 1980 Research in African Literatures, 1991 African Studies Bulletin, 1962 Jewish Affairs, 1961 Leeds African Studies Bulletin, 1977
