After Universalism Reengineering Access To Justice:

After Universalism ,2003 Transforming lives Legal Services Research Centre,2007-04-25 This edited collection brings together a selection of papers originally presented at the Legal Services Research Centre's tenth anniversary international research conference The papers drawn from three continents provide an insight into how people experience the law the extent of impact of legal problems the reasons people sometimes take no action to resolve problems methods of service delivery the integration of legal and health services and forms of funding legal services Litigants in Person in the Civil Justice System Kate Leader,2024-04-18 Why do people represent themselves What works and what doesn't for self-represented parties And how can we improve Litigant in Person LiP experiences to make the civil justice system fairer Based on in-depth interviews with individuals who have acted as Litigants in Person in the civil courts the book provides the first full-length account of LiP experiences The author shines a light on how much we don't know about LiPs the civil justice system and LiPs place within it as well as the kinds of things we ought to be doing to improve access to justice for unrepresented parties Perfect for scholars of administrative justice access to justice court reform and legal aid as well as government bodies and non-profit organisations this book generates insight into meaningful methods of what works and what doesn't work for self-represented parties based on the real-life experiences of LiPs Private Lawyers and the Public Interest Robert Granfield,Lynn M. Mather,2009 Private Lawyers and the Public Interest The Evolving Role of Pro Bono in the Legal Profession explores timely questions about the role of pro bono in the legal profession the relationship between pro bono ideals and pro bono in practice and the opportunities and limitations of pro bono in expanding access to justice The contributing writers explore theoretical empirical and practical questions regarding the role of pro bono and public service in the legal profession and in law schools The research presented not only highlights the increase in pro bono efforts across the legal profession but critically examines the limitations of pro bono work as well as the potential problems such work may pose to the ideal of achieving greater access to justice Rethinking Equality Projects in Law Rosemary Hunter,2008-08-01 This book analyses a range of equality projects across public and private law considering competing conceptions of equality and alternatives to it The Oxford Handbook of Empirical Legal Research Peter Cane,Herbert Kritzer,2012-05-17 The empirical study of law legal systems and legal institutions is widely viewed as one of the most exciting and important intellectual developments in the modern history of legal research Motivated by a conviction that legal phenomena can and should be understood not only in normative terms but also as social practices of political economic and ethical significance empirical legal researchers have used quantitative and qualitative methods to illuminate many aspects of law's meaning operation and impact In the 43 chapters of The Oxford Handbook of Empirical Legal Research leading scholars provide accessible and original discussions of the history aims and methods of empirical research about law as well as its achievements and potential The Handbook has three parts The first deals with the development and institutional context of empirical legal research The second and largest part consists of critical accounts of empirical research on many aspects of the legal world on criminal law civil law public law regulatory law and international law on lawyers judicial institutions legal procedures and evidence and on legal pluralism and the public understanding of law The third part introduces readers to the methods of empirical research and its place in the law school curriculum Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall,2003 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers UNB Law Journal ,2003 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2003 American Book Publishing Record ,2003 Current Law Index ,2003 Access to Justice After Universalism Richard Moorhead,2003 Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004
