Against Information And Other Poems:

Against Information and Other Poems John Lane,1995 Abandoned Quarry John Lane,2010 In 1995 with the publication by New Native Press of Against Information Other Poems John Lane's poems were hailed on the front page of Small Press Review as a fearless celebration of the materials of words a sign of hope The title poem of the collection has been mistaken for an advertisement widely praised both nationally and internationally in reviews scripted into an independent video and featured on Canadian Public Radio's popular news program As it Happens Now Abandoned Quarry publishes for the first time in a trade edition John Lane's poems from Against Information and earlier small press limited editions broadsides and little magazines Out of print obscure or simply unavailable except in rare book collections the selection of poems in Abandoned Quarry show the growth and fullness of spirit of one of the important poets to emerge in the 1980s Abandoned Quarry is a collection of poems by one of the South's most admired environmental writers The collection makes available for the first time under one cover poems from a dozen full collections and chapbooks The poems range in subject matter through relationships nature improvisational pieces and rants about the strangeness of the modern condition Abandoned Quarry includes nearly all of John Lane's published poetry over thirty years plus a selection of new poems

Paratextuality in Anglophone and Hispanophone Poems in the US Press, 1855-1901 Ayendy Bonifacio,2024-04-30 Drawing examples from over 200 English language and Spanish language newspapers and periodicals published between January 1855 and October 1901 Paratextuality in Anglophone and Hispanophone Poems in the US Press 1855 1901 argues that nineteenth century newspaper poems are inherently paratextual The paratextual situation of many newspaper poems their links to surrounding textual items and discourses their editorialisation through circulation the way poems were altered from newspaper to newspaper and their association and disassociation with certain celebrity bylines editors and newspaper titles enabled contemporaneous poetic value and taste that in the mid to late nineteenth century were not only sentimental Romantic and or genteel In addition to these important categories for determining a good and bad poem poetic taste and value were determined Bonifacio argues via arbitrary consequences of circulation paratextualisation typesetter error and editorial convenience Landmark Essays on Writing Across the Curriculum Charles Bazerman,David Russell,2020-11-25 Rhetoric as a general teaching while preaching locality of action and guidelines for handling that locality has tended from the beginning to serve as a universality It has offered a generalized techne with only limited categories appropriate for all discursive situations at least for those that were not excluded from the realm of rhetoric Nonetheless from its beginnings rhetoric limited its interests to certain activity fields such as law government religion and most important the educators of leaders in these activity fields This collection presents landmarks showing where the Writing Across the Curriculum WAC and Writing in the Disciplines WID movements have gone They have opened up a number of prospects that were impossible to see when rhetoric and composition confined their gaze to relatively few discursive activities This suggests that the rhetorical landscape is becoming more complex and interesting as well as more responsive to life in the complex differentiated societies that have emerged in the last few centuries This volume will reveal to scholars and researchers a range of possibilities for the study of disciplinary discourse and its teaching and suggest to them new prospects for the future and for the better
