Age Of Faith:

The Age of Faith Will Durant, 2011-06-07 The Story of Civilization Volume IV A history of medieval civilization Christian Islamic and Judaic from Constantine to Dante A D 325 1300 This is the fourth volume of the classic Pulitzer Prize winning series Mores Catholici, Or, Ages of Faith Kenelm Henry Digby, 1846 Age of Faith Anne Fremantle, 1970 The Future of Faith Harvey Gallagher Cox, 2009-08-19 Legendary Harvard religion scholar Harvey Cox offers up a new interpretation of the history and future of religion Cox identifies three fundamental shifts over the last 2 000 years of church history The Age of Faith was when the early church was more concerned with following Jesus teachings than enforcing what to believe about Jesus The Age of Belief marks a significant shift between the fourth and twentieth centuries when the church focused on orthodoxy and right beliefs The Age of the Spirit that began in the 1960s and is shaping not just Christianity but other religious traditions today is ignoring dogma and breaking down barriers between different religions Spirituality is replacing formal religion Reflecting on how his own faith journey mirrors these three historical shifts Cox personalizes the material in a compelling practical ways The Future of Faith is a major statement by one of the most revered theologians today Religion in an Age of Science Edwin Arthur Burtt, 1929 Different Visions of Love Brian Griffith, 2008 Griffiths narrative moves like a searchlight over each phase of church history illuminating the visions options and choices behind events He traces the rise of a dominator version of Christianity in which the primary concern was a chain of command to be followed with rewards or punishments according to the degree of obedience And beside this he illuminates another face of Christianity concerned with healing all divisions between loved and unloved people The story Griffith presents is often deeply disturbing as in his unstinting accounts concerning the gospel for women or the age of holy wars and witch hunts But ultimately his story offers solid grounds for optimism He shows that all contention between different religious visions can be a process of building partnership As Griffith points out Jesus himself wished to debate his opponents openly not to silence or eliminate them He was not afraid of real encounter or the potential of creative conflict I want to congratulate Brian Griffith on this masterful controversial and highly readable account His book offers hope in a divided world where reaction against globalized godless corporate secularism meets with a war on religious fundamentalism I hope to see other writers do comparable work in highlighting the partnership and dominator visions within their religious traditions around the world Riane Eisler author of The Chalice the Blade Sacred Pleasure Tomorrows Children The Power of Partnership The Real Wealth of Nations I find it gives me an incredibly clarifying perspective on Christianity way beyond my previous understanding It should be read by everyone with an interest in Western Civilization It is a marvelous companion to The Great Turning David Korten author of The Great Turning From Empire to Earth Community The Foundations of Faith, Considered in Eight Sermons Henry Wace, 1886 American Literary Gazette and Publishers' Circular, 1863 The Age of Faith Will Durant, 1950 A history of Medieval civilization Christian Islamic and Judaic from Constantine to Dante A D 325 1300 The
