Agee On Film Volume 2 Five Film Scripts:

Agee on Film Volume 2 James Agee, 1960      Screenwriters José Guilherme Correa, 2016-07-13 Screen writing is a unique literary form Screenplays are like musical scores in that they are intended to be interpreted on the basis of other artists performances rather than serving as finished products for the enjoyment of their readers They are written using technical jargon and tight spare prose to describe set directions Unlike a novella a script focuses on describing the literal visual aspects of the story rather than on its characters internal thoughts In screen writing the aim is to evoke those thoughts and emotions through subtext action and symbolism Prominent Hollywood script doctors include Steve Zaillian William Goldman Robert Towne Mort Nathan Quentin Tarantino etc while many up and coming screenwriters work as ghost writers This book is a modest catalogue of some of the most prominent screenwriters listed from A to Z The good are sometimes bad and they can be even Ugly Many comments herein included were googled in deference to the multiplicity of information available today yet they reflect exactly or almost what I thought An amazing thing today is how anonymous commentators on the Internet rival and even surpass the poor quality of professional media and specialised literature It all comes down to watching the truth 24 times per second to quote Jean Luc Godard s phrase Not to mention that such truth may include sex scenes violence pedophilia etc We know that a literary masterpiece like Henry James Portrait of a Lady became a film of very poor quality as scripted by Laura Jones We know conversely that a mediocre writer like Mickey Spillane inspired at least one film as remarkable as Kiss Me Deadly thanks to A I Bezzerides script Asa former screenwriter Mr Correa must avow that he found the job most gratifying Writing that looks effortless is often hellish to write and revise It was something he did have to slog through but it proved particularly pleasing Editing discussing finishing your work is particularly gratifying Identifying your flaws and working to mitigate them is also gratifying It is a general perception that creative careers are more interesting and fun than others But the privilege of earning money through imagination and creativity is effectively hard won Please comment at will Please disagree at will Be facetious in your remarks but please be neither vicious nor mean spirited

The Night of the Hunter Jeffrey Couchman, 2009-02-12 In the first major study of the long lost first draft screenplay by James Agee Jeffrey Couchman confronts a fifty year controversy about the authorship of the film He explores many levels of artistic convergence between novelist and director director and actor and cinematic form and audience expectations The talents that clashed or came together along the road from book to movie created a film of rich stylistic contradiction Combining biographical and historical analysis with a critical study of both the novel and the film Couchman makes the case that this initially overlooked cinematic gem is a prismatic work that continually reveals new aspects of itself BOOK JACKET

Agee on Film ; Volume Two
James Agee,1960 The Macmillan Film Bibliography George Rehrauer,1982 The Wolf at the Door Geoffrey Cocks,2004
Discovers a Holocaust subtext in Kubrick s films culminating in his 1980 adaptation of Stephen King s horror novel The Shining Maintains that this is reflected in his depiction of harsh struggles with and over power and violence Several of his films deal with war and state power The Shining is seen as an artistic and philosophical response to the horrors of World War II Among the influences on the filmmaker are Hilberg s The Destruction of the European Jews Kubrick s Jewish past and his early years that were affected by fascism and war Kubrick s marriage into an artistic German family also contributed to his preoccupation with the history of Nazi Germany and the Holocaust which were indirectly reflected in his oeuvre

God-Fearing and Free Jason W. Stevens,2011-03-15 Religion has been on the rise in America for decades which strikes many as a shocking new development To the contrary Jason Stevens asserts the rumors of the death of God were premature Americans have always conducted their cultural life through religious symbols never more so than during the Cold War In God Fearing and Free Stevens discloses how the nation on top of the world and torn between grandiose self congratulation and doubt about the future opened the way for a new master narrative The book shows how the American public powered by a national religious revival was purposefully disillusioned regarding the country s mythical innocence and fortified for an epochal struggle with totalitarianism Stevens reveals how the Augustinian doctrine of original sin was refurbished and then mobilized in a variety of cultural discourses that aimed to shore up democratic society against threats preying on the nation s internal weaknesses Suddenly innocence no longer meant a clear conscience Instead it became synonymous with totalitarian ideologies of the fascist right or the communist left whose notions of perfectability were dangerously close to millenarian ideals at the heart of American Protestant tradition As America became riddled with self doubt ruminations on the meaning of power and the future of the globe during the American Century renewed the impetus to religion Covering a wide selection of narrative and cultural forms Stevens shows how writers artists and intellectuals the devout as well as the nonreligious disseminated the terms of this cultural dialogue disputing refining and challenging it effectively making the conservative case against modernity as liberals floundered Agee on film; volume two; five film scripts J.
