Peasant Perceptions of Landscape marks a change in the discipline of landscape history as well as making a major contribution to the history of everyday life Until now there has been no sustained analysis of how ordinary medieval and early modern people experienced and perceived their material environment and constructed their identities in relation to the places where they lived This volume provides exactly such an analysis by examining peasant perceptions in one geographical area over the long period from AD 500 to 1650 The study takes as its focus Ewelme hundred a well documented and archaeologically rich area of lowland vale and hilly Chiltern wood pasture comprising fourteen ancient parishes The analysis draws on a range of sources including legal depositions and thousands of field names and bynames preserved in largely unpublished deeds and manorial documents Archaeology makes a major contribution particularly for understanding the period before 900 but more generally in reconstructing the fabric of villages and the framework for inhabitants spatial practices and experiences In its focus on the way inhabitants interacted with the landscape in which they worked prayed and socialised Peasant Perceptions of Landscape supplies a new history of the lives and attitudes of the bulk of the rural population who so seldom make their mark in traditional landscape analysis or documentary history Lett's Popular County Atlas ,1884 Roman Roads in the South-East Midlands Viatores, 1964 Chichester's 100 Mile Map Francis Chichester Ltd, 1969 A History of the County of Oxford Louis Francis Salzman, Simon Townley, 2016 This volume covers the history of Benson Ewelme and the Chilterns in the county of Oxford The Ridgeway National Trail Steve Davison, 2026-02-19 Follow Britain's oldest road on the Ridgeway National Trail a 139km 86 mile journey from Avebury in Wiltshire to Ivinghoe Beacon in Buckinghamshire This ancient trackway winds along chalk ridges and open downs passing Neolithic burial mounds Iron Age hill forts and sweeping viewpoints across the North Wessex Downs and the Chilterns With gentle gradients and well waymarked paths that rarely rise above 300m the Ridgeway National Trail offers relatively easy low level walking suitable for all abilities The route is presented in 12 manageable stages of 8 16km plus a separate pull out map booklet and is described in both directions allowing flexibility for shorter itineraries or a relaxed week long traverse across southern England Step by step stage by stage route descriptions for the Ridgeway National Trail between Avebury and Ivinghoe Beacon presented in both directions and including detours to nearby prehistoric and historic sites such as Uffington White Horse and Wayland's Smithy Each stage features 1:50,000 OS mapping alongside detailed navigation notes distance terrain summary and estimated walking times plus a separate pull out 1:25,000 OS mapping
