and college student research as well as further reading for general audiences The West in the World, Volume I: To 1715 Dennis Sherman, Joyce Salisbury, 2007-12-06 The West in the World relates the story of how the west has transformed and been transformed by the rest of the world The authors examine the West s contributions to the world and how the west has changed and embraced new ideas through contact with the people outside its center Using a political cultural framework the text weaves a strong thread of social history into the narrative by showing how civilizations grow and are shaped through the decisions and actions of real people The authors bring history to life by using art and maps as a central feature of learning They build discussions of art into the narrative to help students interpret artwork and provide analytical map guides that reveal the connections between geography politics and other developments This strong rich narrative is short enough to allow instructors the flexibility of introducing other sources and books as supplement while giving students a solid understanding of Western Civilization without overwhelming them Story of Our Civilization Hélène Adeline Guerber, 1926 Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,2001 Commodus Olivier Hekster, 2002 The emperor Commodus AD 180 192 has commonly been portrayed as an insane madman whose reign marked the beginning of the end of the Roman Empire Indeed the main point of criticism on his father Marcus Aurelius is that he appointed his son as his successor Especially Commodus behaviour as a gladiator and the way he represented himself with divine attributes especially those of Hercules are often used as evidence for the emperor s presumed madness However this political biography will apply modern interpretations of the spectacles in the arena and of the imperial cult to Commodus reign It will focus on the dissemination and reception of imperial images and suggest that there was a method in Commodus madness The Askesis of Abjection Barbara Ellen Logan, 2002 The Journal of Indo-European Studies ,2006
