A Tender Obscenity Jim Teague, Ann Teague, 1973      Anti-obscenity Legislation United States. Congress. House. Committee on Post Office and Civil Service. Subcommittee on Postal Facilities and Mail, 1971      Law of Obscenity in India, USA & UK Inder S. Rana, 1990      The Obscene Madame D Hilda Hilst, 2025-05-27 A wickedly funny work of depraved genius by one of Brazil's most radical twentieth century writers imagine the Marquis de Sade as written by Clarice Lispector An electrifying masterpiece by one of modern Brazilian literature's most significant and controversial writers Hilda Hilst takes us into the disorder and beauty of a mind restlessly testing its own limits Every month I ingested the body of God not in the way one swallows green peas or agrostis or swallows swords I ingested the body of God the way people do when they know they are swallowing the More the All the Incommensurable for not believing in finitude I would lose myself in absolute infinity The Obscene Madame D tells the story of Hill a sixty year old woman who has decided to abandon conventional life and spend the rest of her days in contemplation in a recess under the stairs There she is haunted by the perplexity of her recently deceased lover Ehud who cannot understand her rejection of common sense sex and a simple life in favour of metaphysical speculations that he considers delusional and vain In a stream of consciousness monologue that's part James Joyce part Clarice Lispector and part de Sade Hill speaks of her search for spiritual fulfilment from a space of dereliction as she searches for answers to great questions of life death and the relationship between body and soul      Obscenity in the Mail, Hearings Before the Subcommittee on Postal Operations ... 91-2, August 11; November 17 and 18, 1970 United States. Congress. House. Post Office and Civil Service, 1970      Obscenity in the Mail United States. Congress. House. Committee on Post Office and Civil Service. Subcommittee on Postal Operations, 1970      Obscene Gestures Patrick S. Lawrence, 2022-06-07 Drawing on sources as diverse as Supreme Court decisions nightclub comedy congressional records and cultural theory Obscene Gestures explores the many contradictory vectors of twentieth century moralist controversies surrounding literary and artistic works from Henry Miller's Tropic of Cancer to those of Toni Morrison Alice Walker Kathy Acker Robert Mapplethorpe 2 Live Crew Tony Kushner and others Patrick S. Lawrence dives into notorious obscenity debates to reconsider the divergent afterlives of artworks that were challenged or banned over their taboo sexual content to reveal how these controversies affected their critical reception and commercial success in ways that were often determined at least in part by racial gender or sexual stereotypes and pernicious ethnographic reading practices Starting with early postwar touchstone cases and continuing through the civil rights feminist and LGBTQ movements Lawrence demonstrates on one level that breaking sexual taboos in literary and cultural works often comes with cultural cachet and increased sales At the same time these benefits are distributed unequally leading to the persistence of exclusive hierarchies and inequalities Obscene Gestures takes its bearings from recent studies of the role of obscenity in literary history and canon formation during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries extending their insights into the postwar period when broad legal latitude for obscenity was established but when charges of obscenity still carried immense symbolic and political weight Moreover the rise of social justice movements around this time provides necessary context for understanding the application of legal precedents changes in the publishing industry and the diversification of the canon of American letters Obscene Gestures therefore advances the study of obscenity to include recent developments in the understanding of race gender and sexuality while refining our understanding of late twentieth century American literature and political culture Obscenity, Pornography & Censorship Perry C. Cotham,1973 Criminal Obscenity John Ford,1926 Obscenity and Freedom of Expression Haig A.
