African Musical Aesthetics John Murungi, 2011-05-25 In the West philosophy is generally confined to the domain of the intellect and music to the domain of the emotion This book makes either domain the location for the other African musical aesthetics constitutes this location and has its home in it Moreover since the separation of the domain of the intellect and the domain of emotion represents a bifurcation of what it is to be a human being and by making either domain the location of the other what African musical aesthetics accomplishes is the affirmation of a unified sense of what it is to be a human being Accordingly the unity of philosophy and music give rises to a unified sense of being human It is to such unity that African musical aesthetics takes us For African musical aesthetics to accomplish this task this book challenges the conventional Western understanding of philosophy an understanding that projects Africa as devoid of philosophy It is this projection that pervaded Africa during the colonial period and it is the projection that is challenged in African philosophy From an African philosophical perspective African musical aesthetics turns out to be an emancipatory process that seeks to affirm the humanity of Africans but also a process that seeks to affirm common humanity Music is not solely a matter of audiology what is played or what one dances to It has its elemental task in calling our attention to what we are as human beings In so far as it is sensuous it constitutes us as members of the sensible world and links us intrinsically to all that is sensuous It is more than humanism Music registers us as members of nature It is nature naturing

A Strategic Vision for Africa Francis M. Deng, I. William Zartman, 2004-06-23

Increasingly marginalized since the end of the Cold War the continent of Africa is struggling to identify both the root causes and possible solutions to the maladies that continue to plague it The problems read like a laundry list of misrule in the aftermath of decolonization rampant political corruption internecine wars widespread disease underdevelopment and economic collapse In the early 1990s a group of statesmen academics and civil leaders from all over Africa gathered to put together a comprehensive plan to make the continent become less dependent on the rest of the world and prepare it to compete in the new globalizing economy Those who gathered to write what would come to be known as the Kampala Document envisioned an organization which would succeed where the Organization for African Unity OAU had failed This new organization the Conference on Security Stability Development and Cooperation in Africa CSSDCA will provide a forum for discussion of democratization security issues and sustainable development This new book by noted scholars Francis Deng and I William Zartman provides a mid course appraisal of the progress of the CSSDCA as well as charting its future in relation to other regional organizations With a preface by President Olusegun Obasanjo this book will undoubtedly become an important tool in understanding Africa's present and future Francis Deng is a nonresident senior fellow in the Foreign
