African Condition:

The African Condition Ali A. Mazrui, 1980-04-30 The noted political scientist Ali Mazrui explores six fundamental paradoxes of Africa today focusing on Africa's key geographical position in relation to issues of economic distribution and social justice

The African Condition Ali Al'Amin Mazrui, 1980 Six lectures which confront the fundamental paradoxes of Africa as an emerging third world power

Power, Politics, and the African Condition Ali Al'Amin Mazrui, 2004 Power Politics and the African Condition is the third volume of The Collected Essays of Ali A Mazrui which will provide readers with a broad spectrum of Ali A Mazrui's scholarly writings The third volume is centered on issues of power and politics at the nexus of Africa's domestic affairs and its international concepts about the disequilibrium of power in the international system and the problems that Africa has confronted globally because of it Mazrui focuses the reader's attention on the impact that the colonial legacy and African tradition had on state formation leadership Africa's political economy violence and conflict resolution while presenting some of his most interesting and even controversial ideas for building Pax Africana Spanning nearly forty years Mazrui's essays are classic and contemporary statements on the diagnosis and treatment of what he called The African Condition

Debating the African Condition Alamin M. Mazrui, Alamin Mazrui, Willy Mutunga, 2004 Is Ali Mazrui a visionary or a vacuous intellectual Is he reactionary revolutionary or essentially a radical pragmatist These questions were the focus of a special plenary session of the Conference of the African Association of Political Science that took place in Harare Zimbabwe in June 2003 The forum was intended to interrogate Ali Mazrui's contributions in the last forty years or so of his career as an academic The question themselves capture the magnitude of polarization among different sections of Mazrui's audiences generated by his often provocative propositions and prescriptions on a wide range of issues from the role of intellectuals in Africa's transformation to the imperative of pax Africana from Tanza philia to Islamophobia from the condition of the Black woman to the destiny of the Black race It is some the exchanges sometimes intense and even acrimonious arising from Mazrui's ideas on continental and global African affairs from the 1960s to the present that constitute the subject matter Together they are not only a celebration of Ali Mazrui's own intellectual life as one long debate but also an intellectual mirror of the contours of some of the hotly contested terrains in Africa's quest for self realization

African Migrants in Africa and Europe Frank Aragbonfoh Abumere, 2025-11-06 This book juxtaposes two realities of our world On the one hand the extensity intensity and velocity of the current form of globalization amplified the role of globalization in the migrations and movements of people and consequently amplified the centrality of the migrations and movements of people in our contemporary world On the other hand in spite of globalization i migration is a problematic phenomenon and ii Africans remain outsiders in Europe and Africans from some African states remain outsiders in other African states Understanding i and ii is crucial to understanding the current plight of African migrants Taking his cue from Alexander Wendt's 1992 social constructivist argument that anarchy is what states make of it Frank Abumere shows how and why the problem of identity rather than the problem of securitization is the fundamental problem when dealing with the problem of migration The African Condition Ali Al'Amin Mazrui,1980 The African Condition Chukwudum Barnabas Okolo,1996 Anti-slavery in America from the Introduction of African Slaves to the Prohibition of the Slave Trade (1619-1808) Mary Stoughton Locke,1901 Debating the African Condition Alamin M.
