I make an eye-to-eye with a blade of grass, a song I thought I'd heard before pouncing in my head. The sky was so cloudy like it hurt. I closed my eyes. I knew the memory would fade, like the names of people I used to love. Sometimes, their faces return in perfect detail, even their scents - so startling. If I see them again, I'll ask who it was. Someone is playing the song in their garage. I lift my head from the grass and walk over. It's me, sitting in my car, waiting for the song to end. It never does.
