After Apocalypse:

After the End James Berger, 1999-01-01 In this study of the cultural pursuit of the end and what follows Berger contends that every apocalyptic depiction leaves something behind some mixture of paradise and wasteland Combining literary psychoanalytic and historical methods Berger mines these depictions for their weight and influence on current culture He applies wide ranging evidence from science fiction to Holocaust literature from Thomas Pynchon to talk shows from American politics to the fiction of Toni Morrison to reveal how representations of apocalyptic endings are indelibly marked by catastrophic histories

Post-Apocalyptic Culture Teresa Heffernan, 2008-12-04 In Post Apocalyptic Culture Teresa Heffernan poses the question what is at stake in a world that no longer believes in the power of the end Although popular discourse increasingly understands apocalypse as synonymous with catastrophe historically in both its religious and secular usage apocalypse was intricately linked to the emergence of a better world to revelation and to disclosure In this interdisciplinary study Heffernan uses modernist and post modernist novels as evidence of the diminished faith in the existence of an inherently meaningful end Probing the cultural and historical reasons for this shift in the understanding of apocalypse she also considers the political implications of living in a world that does not rely on revelation as an organizing principle With fascinating readings of works by William Faulkner Don DeLillo Ford Madox Ford Toni Morrison E M Forster Salman Rushdie D H Lawrence and Angela Carter Post Apocalyptic Culture is a provocative study of how twentieth century culture and society responded to a world in which a belief in the end had been exhausted

The Post-Apocalyptic Novel in the Twenty-First Century H. Hicks, 2016-04-08 Since the beginning of the twenty first century major Anglophone authors have flocked to a literary form once considered lowbrow genre fiction the post apocalyptic novel Calling on her broad knowledge of the history of apocalyptic literature Hicks examines the most influential post apocalyptic novels written since the beginning of the new millennium including works by Margaret Atwood David Mitchell Cormac McCarthy Jeanette Winterson Colson Whitehead and Paolo Bacigalupi Situating her careful readings in relationship to the scholarship of a wide range of historians theorists and literary critics she argues that these texts use the post apocalyptic form to reevaluate modernity in the context of the new century's political economic and ecological challenges In the immediate wake of disaster the characters in these novels desperately scavenge the scraps of the modern world But what happens to modernity beyond these first moments of salvage In a period when postmodernism no longer defines cultural production Hicks convincingly demonstrates that these writers employ conventions of post apocalyptic genre fiction to reengage with key features of modernity from historical thinking and
