Afterimage Drawing Through Process:

Afterimage Cornelia H. Butler, Museum of Contemporary Art (Los Angeles, Calif.), 1999 The term process art describes a moment of radical a formal experimentation in postwar American sculpture Through the medium of drawing Afterimage revisits process art in terms of the artists who defined the movement and suggests a transitional moment when many of its practitioners anticipated the feminist and postminimalist art of the 1970s Nancy Grossman's use of language for example suggests a kind of material abstraction and Nancy Holt's earth works and related drawings introduced content into a minimalist vocabulary The book also explores the drawing as a residual object in works in which the process of making dictates the form of the drawing Examples include Gordon Matta Clark's stacked cuttings Robert Morris blind time drawings and Sol Lewitt's folded construction drawings Other works such as those by Bruce Nauman and Robert Smithson record a particular approach to body based and process oriented sculpture The book which accompanies an exhibition contains an essay by Cornelia H Butler on the historical ambiguity surrounding process art and one by Pamela M Lee on temporality in work of the late 1960s The artists included in the book are William Anastasi Richard Artschwager Mel Bochner Agnes Denes Nancy Grossman Robert Grosvenor Marcia Hafif Eva Hesse Nancy Holt Barry LeVa Sol Lewitt Lee Lozano Sylvia Plimack Mangold Gordon Matta Clark Robert Morris Bruce Nauman Yvonne Rainer Dorothea Rockburne Alan Saret Joel Shapiro Robert Smithson Michelle Stuart Richard Tuttle and Jack Whitten Copublished with The Museum of Contemporary Art Los Angeles Afterimage Cornelia H. Drawing Investigations Sarah Casey, Gerry Davies, 2020-06-11 Using close visual analysis of drawings artist interviews critical analysis and exegesis Drawing Investigations examines how artists use drawing as an investigative tool to reveal information that would otherwise remain unseen and unnoticed How does drawing add shape to ideas How does the artist accommodate to challenges and restraints of a particular environment To what extent is a drawing complementary and continuous with its subject and where is it disruptive and provocative Casey and Davies address these questions while focusing on artists working collaboratively and the use of drawing in challenging or unexpected environments Drawing Investigations evaluates the emergence of a way of thinking among an otherwise disconnected group of artists by exploring commonalities in the application of analytical drawing to the natural world urban environment social forces and lived experience Examples represent a spectrum of research in international contexts an oceanographic Institute in California the archives of Amsterdam s Rijksmuseum the Antarctic Survey geothermal research in Japan and the Kurdish diaspora in Iraq Issues are situated in the contemporary theory and practice of drawing including relationships to historical precedents By exploring drawing s capacity to capture and describe experience to sharpen visual faculties and to bridge embodied and conceptual knowledge Drawing Investigations offers a fresh critical perspective on contemporary drawing practice

Drawing Difference Marsha Meskimmon, Phil Sawdon, 2016-03-24 Drawing has been growing in recognition and stature within contemporary fine art since the mid 1970s Simultaneously feminist activism has been widespread leading to the increased prominence of women artists scholars critics and curators and the wide acknowledgement of the crucial role played by gender and sexual difference in constituting the subject Drawing Difference argues that these developments did not occur in parallel simply by coincidence Rather the intimate interplay between drawing and feminism is best characterised as allotropic a term originating in chemistry that describes a single pure element which nevertheless assumes varied physical structures denoting the fundamental affinities which underlie apparently differing material forms The book takes as its starting point three works from the 1970s by Annette Messager Dorothea Rockburne and Carolee Schneeman that are used to exemplify critical developments in feminist art history and key moments for drawing as a means of expression Throughout the chapters these works are further explored in relation to the contemporary drawing practices of Marco Maggi Sian Bowen

Susan Hauptmann Cornelia Parker Christoph Fink and Toba Khedori Their works are shown to be re iterative sites where mark making differs with each appearance yet retains certain essential features Dividing its analysis into the themes Approaching Tropes and Coinciding the book analyses how both drawing and feminist discourse emphasise dialogue matter and openness It demonstrates how sexual difference subjectivity and drawing are connected at an elemental level and thus how drawing has played a vital role in the articulation of the material and conceptual dynamics of feminism Picture
