Again For The First Time:

More, Now, Again Elizabeth Wurtzel, 2007-11-01 Elizabeth Wurtzel published her memoir of depression Prozac Nation to astonishing literary acclaim A cultural phenomenon by age twenty six she had fame money respect everything she had always wanted except that one true thing happiness For all of her professional success Wurtzel felt like a failure She had lost friends and lovers every magazine job she d held and way too much weight She couldn t write and her second book was past due But when her doctor prescribed Ritalin to help her focus and boost the effects of her antidepressants Wurtzel was spared The Ritalin worked And worked The pills became her sugar the sweetness in the days that have none Soon she began grinding up the Ritalin and snorting it Then came the cocaine then more Ritalin then more cocaine Then I need more I always need more For all of my life I have needed more More Now Again is the brutally honest often painful account of Wurtzel s descent into drug addiction It is also a survival story How Wurtzel managed to break free of her relationship with Ritalin and learned to love life and herself is at the heart of this ultimately uplifting memoir that no reader will soon forget Believing Again Daniel Taylor, 2025-02-24 The numbers are alarming at least to people of faith Many especially the young are leaving the church and abandoning faith in God Social scientists have for decades been documenting with numbers what church leaders and families have experienced directly What is much less noted and evaluated is the substantial number of those who leave faith and the church and eventually come back to both Why people leave is an important question but so is why people return a question much less often addressed Once people have made a clear and conscious break with their religious convictions and practice what leads many to return This book explores this important question primarily through listening to the stories these people tell It relies on stories not numbers allowing people to tell their own stories in their own words both why they left and why they returned One discovers from listening to their stories that there are recurring patterns People leave faith for common reasons and they also return for common reasons In fact many return for the flip side of why they left The shared factor in all returns is God s relentless love for each of them A Complete Collection of State Trials and Proceedings for High Treason and Other Crimes and Misdemeanors from the Earliest Period to the Year 1783 Thomas Bayly Howell, 1824 The Man who Rose Again Joseph Hocking, 1906 Two Jews on a Train Adam Biro, 2001 Somewhere between Isaac Bashevis Singer and Morey Amsterdam Kirkus Reviews Two Jews were on a train All Eastern European Jewish jokes start this way or almost says Adam Biro who has assembled this rich volume of such stories tales in which thanks to a masterful translation by Catherine Tihanyi we can hear the voices of generations using humor to teach about the delicacy anguish and unpredictability of life itself Journal of the Council of the Territory of Kansas ... Kansas.
