Gathering Noise from My Life Donald Anderson,2013-07-03 The noise gathered from a lifetime of engaging with war race religion memory illness and family echoes through the vignettes quotations graffiti and poetry that Donald Anderson musters here fragments of the humor and horror of life the absurdities that mock reason and the despair that yields laughter Gathering Noise from My Life offers sonic shards of a tune at once jaunty and pessimistic hopeful and hopeless and a model for how we can make sense of the scraps of our lives We are where we ve been and what we ve read the author says and gives us his youth in Montana the family tradition of boxing careers in writing and fighting the words of Mike Tyson Frederick the Great Fran Lebowitz and Shakespeare In his camouflaged memoir the award winning short story writer cobbles together the sources of the vision of life he has accrued as a consequence of his six decades of living and reading What Persists Judith Kitchen,2016 What Persists contains eighteen of the nearly fifty essays on poetry that Judith Kitchen published in The Georgia Review over a twenty five year span Coming at the genre from every possible angle this celebrated critic discusses work by older and younger poets most American but some foreign and many of whom were not yet part of the contemporary canon Her essays reveal a cultural history from the dismantling of the Berlin Wall through 9 11 and the Iraq War and move into today s

political climate They chronicle personal interests while they also make note of what was happening in contemporary poetry by revealing overall changes of taste both in content and in the use of craft Over time they fashion a comprehensive overview of the contemporary literary scene At its best What Persists shows what a wide range of poetry is being written by women men poets who celebrate their ethnicity poets who show a fierce individualism poets whose careers have soared promising poets whose work has all but disappeared
