Household Management Isabella Beeton, 2000-03-16 As with the commander of an army or the leader of any enterprise so it is with the mistress of a house A founding text of Victorian middle class identity Household Management is today one of the great unread classics Over a thousand pages long and written when its author was only 22 it offered highly authoritative advice on subjects as diverse as fashion child care animal husbandry poisons and the management of servants To the modern reader expecting stuffy moralizing and watery vegetables Beeton's book is a revelation it ranges widely across the foods of Europe and beyond actively embracing new food stuffs and techniques mixing domestic advice with discussions of science religion class industrialism and gender roles Alternately fashionable and frugal anxious and blusteringly self confident Household Management highlights the concerns of the ever expanding Victorian middle class at a key moment in its history The abridged edition does justice to its high status as a cookery book while also suggesting ways of approaching this massive hybrid text as a significant document of social and cultural history ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more

The Book of Household Management Isabella Beeton, 2016-08-17 I must frankly own that if I had known beforehand that this book would have cost me the labour which it has I should never have been courageous enough to commence it What moved me in the first instance to attempt a work like this was the discomfort and suffering which I had seen brought upon men and women by household mismanagement I have always thought that there is no more fruitful source of family discontent than a housewife's badly cooked dinners and untidy ways Men are now so well served out of doors at their clubs well ordered taverns and dining houses that in order to compete with the attractions of these places a mistress must be thoroughly acquainted with the theory and practice of cookery as well as be perfectly conversant with all the other arts of making and keeping a comfortable home In this book I have attempted to give under the chapters devoted to cookery an intelligible arrangement to every recipe a list of the ingredients a plain statement of the mode of preparing each dish and a careful estimate of its cost the number of people for whom it is sufficient and the time when it is seasonable For the matter of the recipes I am indebted in some measure to many correspondents of the Englishwoman's Domestic Magazine who have obligingly placed at my disposal their formulas for many original preparations A large private circle has also rendered me considerable service A diligent study of the works of the best modern writers on cookery was also necessary to the faithful fulfilment of my task Friends in England Scotland Ireland France and Germany have also very materially aided me I have paid great attention to those recipes which come under the head of COLD MEAT COOKERY
