Beginning Of The Gospel Probings Of Mark In Context:

The Beginning of the Gospel Adela Yarbro Collins,2001-09-24 Much exciting work remains to be done from perspectives of the history of religions and tradition history Collins s assessment of Mark in its historical context sheds light on important literary and historical issues Both scholars and students of the Bible will appreciate this informative and clearly written work

Mark's Gospel C. Clifton Black,2023-05-11 A culmination of contemporary scholarship on the Gospel of Mark A preeminent scholar of the Gospel of Mark C Clifton Black has been studying and publishing on the Gospel for over thirty years This new collection brings together his most pivotal work and fresh investigations to constitute an all in one compendium of contemporary Markan scholarship and exegesis The essays included cover scriptural commentary historical studies literary analysis theological argument and pastoral considerations Among other topics Black explores the Gospel s provenance authorship and attribution the significance of redaction criticism in Markan studies recent approaches to the Gospel s interpretation literary and rhetorical analyses of the Gospel s narrative the kingdom of God and its revelation in Jesus Mark s theology of creation suffering and discipleship the Gospel of Mark s relationship to the Gospel of John and Paul s letters the passion in Mark as the Gospel s recapitulation Scholars advanced students and clergy alike will consider this book an indispensable resource for understanding the foundational Gospel Mark's Argumentative Jesus Caurie

Beaver,2018-05-22 The author claims that the gospel of Mark is a speech or sermon To prove this he shows how Mark used many of the elements of Aristotle s rhetoric Literary critics noticed these rhetorical features in Mark but remained with a literary critical model of that gospel instead of a rhetorical view that the evidence called for They continued to translate the first word of Mark arche as beginning to provide Mark s story of Jesus with a chronological beginning The author translates Mark s first word as guiding principle to provide Mark s persuasive speech or sermon with a logical starting point The

Routledge Encyclopedia of the Historical Jesus Craig Evans,2014-01-14 This Encyclopedia brings together the vast array of historical research into the reality of the man the teachings the acts and the events ascribed to him that have served as the foundational story of one of the world s central religions This kind of historiography is not biography The historical study of the Jesus stories and the transmission of these stories through time have been of seminal importance to historians of religion Critical historical examination has provided a way for scholars of Christianity for centuries to analyze the roots of legend and religion in a way that allows scholars an escape from the confines of dogma belief and theological interpretation In recent years historical Jesus studies have opened up important discussions concerning anti Semitism and early Christianity and the political and ideological filtering of the Jesus story of early Christianity through the Roman empire and beyond Entries will cover the classical studies that initiated the new historiography the theoretical discussions about authenticating the historical record the examination of sources that have led to the western understanding of Jesus teachings and disseminated myth of the events concerning Jesus birth and death Subject areas include the history of the historical study of the New Testament major contributors and their works theoretical issues and concepts methodologies and criteria historical genres and rhetorical styles in the story of Jesus historical and rhetorical context of martyrdom and messianism historical teachings of Jesus teachings within historical context of ethics titles of Jesus historical events in the life of Jesus historical figures in the life of Jesus historical use of Biblical figures referenced in the Gospels places and regions institutions the history of the New Testament within the culture politics and law of the Roman Empire The Westminster Dictionary of New Testament and Early Christian Literature and Rhetoric David Edward Aune,2003-01-01 The Westminster Dictionary of New Testament and Early Christian Literature and Rhetoric details the variety of literary and rhetorical forms found in the New Testament and in the literature of the early Christian church This authoritative reference source is a treasury for understanding the methods employed by New Testament and early Christian writers Aune s extensive study will be of immense value to scholars and all those interested in the ways literary and rhetorical forms were used and how they functioned in the early Christian world This unique and encyclopedic study will serve generations of scholars and students by illuminating the ways words shaped the consciousness of those who encountered Christian teachings The Gospel of the Son of God James M. Neumann,2023-10-19 James M Neumann proposes that there is far more at work in Mark s portrayal of Jesus as Son of God and what it means for Mark to depict him as such than past scholarship has recognized He argues that Mark presents Jesus s life from beginning to end as the actualization of Psalm 2 a coronation hymn describing the Davidic king as God s son which was interpreted messianically in early Judaism and christologically in early Christianity Rather than a simple title the designation of Jesus as God s Son in Mark contains and encapsulates an entire story of its own Beginning with an analysis of why this most important identity of Jesus in the Gospel has been under studied Neumann retraces the interpretive traditions surrounding Psalm 2 in early Judaism and Christianity alike Pointing to Mark s first introduction of Jesus as God s Son into the narrative via an allusion to Ps 2 7 and portraying his baptism as a royal anointing he demonstrates how Jesus begins to realize the implications of his anointment through his disestablishment of Satan s kingdom Focusing on the repetition of the allusion to Ps 2 7 at Jesus s transfiguration and exploring how the Parable of the Vineyard uniquely encapsulates the Gospel as a whole Neumann traces the use of the psalm throughout the Markan passion narrative contending that in Mark s vision the hope envisaged by the psalm has been realized the Son begins to inherit the worship of the nations He concludes that Mark paradoxically portrays the accomplishment of the Messiah s victory through Jesus s crucifixion The Beginning of the Gospel Eugene LaVerdiere,1999 Mark wrote the beginning of the Gospel for Christians who thought it was the end For that he told them a story of another time when Jesus disciples thought it was the end but turned out to be the beginning That is why the passion resurrection of Jesus dominates the Gospel according to Mark Using rhetorical and literary analysis Father LaVerdiere introduces Mark s story as the beginning of the Gospel as we enter a new millennium Jesus' Defeat of Death Peter G. Bolt,2003-12-11 Peter Bolt explores the impact of Mark s Gospel on its early readers in the first century

Graeco Roman world His book focuses upon the thirteen characters in Mark who come to Jesus for healing or exorcism and using analytical tools of narrative and reader response criticism explores their crucial role in the communication of the Gospel Bolt suggests that early readers of Mark would be persuaded that Jesus dealings with the suppliants show him casting back the shadow of death and that this in itself is preparatory for Jesus final defeat of death in resurrection Enlisting a variety of ancient literary and non literary sources in an attempt to illuminate this first century world this book gives special attention to illness magic and the Roman imperial system This is a different approach to Mark which attempts to break the impasse between narrative and historical studies and will appeal to scholars and students alike Go Preach! Brian K. Blount,1998 Connecting the apocalyptic message of Mark s Gospel to principles and programs of socio cultural transformation in the life of the Black church today Blount begins his study of Mark by examining the social significance of Jesus proclamation of the coming Kingdom of God Through Jesus God s future power broke through to the human present This experience of the Kingdom empowered the disciples to Go preach the Kingdom message in word and deed to finish the story that Mark s narration about Jesus began Blount compares the situation of today s Black church to the situation in which the Gospel arose and explores the implications of apocalyptic theology for the pastoral mission of the Black church He demonstrates the value of a sociolinguistic approach to the scripture both in interpreting the text in its original context and in unpacking its meaning for today The Identity of Jesus in Mark Jacob Chacko Naluparayil,2000 Writing on the Gospel of Mark William Telford,2009 This thorough manual for advanced students and their supervisors and anyone researching or writing on the Gospel of Mark is the opening volume in an important new series of Guides to Advanced Biblical Research Together with an essay on the current state of research and a discussion of the future of Markan study it provides a chrestomathy of samples of Markan research together with a review of recent dissertations and a full annotated bibliography The History and Theology of the New Testament Writings Udo Schnelle,1998 A classic kind of introduction to the New Testament Schnelle s book presents full and up to date information about the individual writings with respect to date author place of writing structure of the document current scholarship and themes and theological aims The book intended to supersede W G Kummel s introduction informs the reader of all the important historical issues and describes the range of scholarly opinion and literature preparing the reader to pass judgment After providing an overview of the development of the New Testament canon Schnelle then takes up in turn the letters of Paul the Synoptic Gospels including Q Acts the Deutero Paulines the Catholic letters the Gospel of John and Revelation With extensive anglicized bibliographies Toronto Journal of Theology ,1999 Encyclopedia of Apocalypticism John J. Collins,Bernard McGinn,Stephen Stein,2000-03-28 Volume 1 covers the beginnings of apocalypticism in the ancient Near East moves through early Judaism and ends at the Book of Revelation in the New Testament Volume 2 begins with the apocalypticism in early Christian theology 100 C E and concludes with discussions of apocalyptic influences in medieval and renaissance literature up to 1800 C E Volume 3 brings the discussion into the 20th century and focuses on the influences of apocalypticism on modern popular culture art science politics and thought Ancient Fiction and Early Christian Narrative Ronald F. Hock, J. Bradley Chance, Judith Perkins, 1998 Classicists as well as Biblical scholars contribute to the annual conference sessions held since 1992 from which the 15 essays here have been selected and revised for publication They focus mostly on Greek novels but also other works of ancient fiction as they relate to the New Testament and to extra canonical Christian narrative Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR The Woman with the Blood Flow (Mark 5:24-34) Barbara Baert, Niels Schalley, 2014 This publication starts from a particular passage in the New Testament that tells the story of a woman with an issue of blood The gospel relates how the so called Haemorrhissa is healed the very moment she touches Christ s garment This publication forms the first and so far the only interdisciplinary study of this particular biblical motif from an exegetical art historical and anthropological point of view Contributing scholars interpret the impact of this biblical miracle on Christian texts material culture and healing archetypes in the Middle Ages and Early Modernity The story and its Nachleben in literary commentaries and various iconographies unveil a particular energy in Christendom related to ideas about the female body the role of textile and the magical impact of touch The Woman with the Blood Flow Mark 5 24 34 Narrative Iconic and Anthropological Spaces contributes to all research in the humanities concerned with gender the sensorium Judeo Christian attitudes towards blood and taboo and early Christian material culture in the East and West Its trajectory ultimately reveals the crucial mystery at the heart of image making as such This publication starts from a particular passage in the New Testament that tells the story of a woman with an issue of blood The gospel relates how the so called Haemorrhissa is healed the very moment she touches Christ s garment This publication forms the first and so far the only interdisciplinary study of this particular biblical motif from an exegetical art historical and anthropological point of view Contributing scholars interpret the impact of this biblical miracle on Christian texts material culture and healing archetypes in the Middle Ages and Early Modernity The story and its Nachleben in literary commentaries and various iconographies unveil a particular energy in Christendom related to ideas about the female body the role of textile and the magical impact of touch The Woman with the Blood Flow Mark 5 24 34 Narrative Iconic and Anthropological Spaces contributes to all research in the humanities concerned with gender the sensorium Judeo Christian attitudes towards blood and taboo and early Christian material culture in the East and West Its trajectory ultimately reveals the crucial mystery at the heart of image making as such The Face of New Testament Studies Scot McKnight, Grant R. Osborne, 2004 Since 1970 there have been far reaching changes in the way the New Testament is studied This text provides detailed overviews on what has been happening in this area over the last 30 years The Mysteries of Righteousness Walter T. Wilson, 1994 The Scriptures in the Gospels Christopher Mark Tuckett, 1997 This volume contains the papers from the 45th Colloquium Biblicum Lovaniense held in Leuven in 1996 The book comprises 14 invited papers as well as 21 offered papers read at the meeting The essays are all concerned with the use of Jewish scriptures in the gospels focusing on the individual gospels or on sources e.g. Q used by the evangelists. The essays also reflect the growing significance in literary studies of the notion of intertextuality emphasizing the idea that texts can only be understood in relation to a network or matrix of other texts. Most of the essays retain a historical-critical approach focusing on the author of the NT texts concerned though with full awareness of the insights to be gained from other approaches to the texts. Further full cognizance is taken of the new light being shed on the NT gospels by the evidence emerging from the hitherto unpublished Qumran scrolls with the newly available 4Q521 text being often discussed. The essays all show the very great importance of the Jewish scriptures both in themselves and as interpreted by contemporary Jews for interpreting the NT gospels and their traditions. This collection will be an invaluable resource for all those engaged in studying the gospels and their traditions especially in seeking to locate those texts within their contexts in Second Temple Judaism.

In Other Words Anselm C. Hagedorn, Zeba A. Crook, Eric Clark Stewart, 2007. Jerome H. Neyrey, Professor of New Testament at the University of Notre Dame since 1992, is widely recognized for his groundbreaking contributions to social-scientific criticism of the Gospels and the Epistles. In this Festschrift the contributors notably advance the cause of social-scientific New Testament study. David Aune writes on Christian beginnings and cognitive dissonance theory. Zeba Crook on constructing a model of ancient prayer. Craig deVos on good news to the poor in Luke. John H. Elliott on envy and the evil eye. Philip Esler on the development of a non-ethnic group identity in John. Bruce Malina and John Pilch on the wrath of God. Halvor Moxnes on masculinity and place in Luke. Douglas Oakman on coinage in the Judean temple system. Carolyn Osiek on motivation for the conversion of women in early Christianity. Eric Stewart on the city in Mark and Gerd Theissen on early Christian communities and ancient organizations.
