Behind the Doors of San Miguel de Allende Robert De Gast, 2000 Robert de Gast author of the popular The Doors of San Miguel de Allende crosses the thresholds of homes in this historic Mexican town to discover their remarkable outdoor paradises sunstruck lushly colored courtyards patios and breezeways that lay beyond them Come with de Gast as he guides viewers to parts of San Miguel visitors seldom see and offers glimpses into the daily lives and traditions of those who live in this unique place Established in the sixteenth century as a Franciscan mission the lovely town of San Miguel de Allende has been an art and artisanal center for nearly two centuries Its cool summers and mild winters have more recently made it a popular destination for vacationers from North America and Europe A part time resident of San Miguel since 1991 Robert de Gast is an award winning photographer and a widely published writer His avocations include hot air ballooning which he pursues in

Church Behind the Wire
 Barnabas Mam,2012-05-01 From the oppression and terror of the killing fields in Cambodia this is the story of how one man's conversion led to a rebirth of faith that brought hope to a nation Commissioned by Communists to spy on a Christian evangelistic crusade Barnabas Mam instead discovered Jesus and came to faith in Him After spending four years in prison camps at the hands of the Khmer Rouge Barnabas emerged as one of only 200 surviving Christians in all of Cambodia God raised him up to become the foremost evangelist and church planter in a land broken by genocide An inspiring story on a personal church and national level this is more than a narrative it's a blueprint for success for church growth of the most powerful kind

American Mass Incarceration and Post-Network Quality Television Lee Flamand,2025-10-01 Far more than a building of brick and mortar the prison relies upon gruesome stories circulated as commercial media to legitimize its institutional reproduction Perhaps no medium has done more in recent years to both produce and intervene in such stories than television This unapologetically interdisciplinary work presents a series of investigations into some of the most influential and innovative treatments of American mass incarceration to hit our screens in recent decades Looking beyond celebratory accolades Lee A Flamand argues that we cannot understand the eagerness of influential programs such as Oz The Wire Orange Is the New Black 13th and Queen Sugar to integrate the sensibilities of prison ethnography urban sociology identity politics activism and even Black feminist theory into their narrative structures without understanding how such critical postures relate to the cultural aspirations and commercial goals of a quickly evolving TV industry and the most deeply ingrained continuities of American storytelling practices
