The story of a couple who got married and ended their marriage shortly after the reception is all too familiar. Many engagements will not make it to the altar, and many who managed to get to the altar will not make it through the storms that is bound to test every marital relationship. This book is written to present the time-tested, bible-based truth of navigating relationships from dating to engagement to married. It is in the interest of everyone presently dating to read this book before saying yes to proposals. There are signs to look out for before you commit yourself. If you ignore these signs, you are courting trouble and heartbreak. For the married, you are safer and happier in your marriage if you take time to read the principles that can change the dynamics of your relationship and make you and your spouse better people. In the matter of relationship, everyone should be involved. Parents should not watch their children do it alone. Everyone should watch out, especially for the younger ones, before they make the commitment that will change their lives. The Paradise Or
