Behind The Mexican Mountains:

Behind the Mexican Mountains Robert Zingg, 2010-07-22 In 1930 anthropologists Robert Zingg and Wendell Bennett spent nine months among the Tarahumara of Chihuahua Mexico one of the least acculturated indigenous societies in North America Their fieldwork resulted in The Tarahumara An Indian Tribe of Northern Mexico 1935 a classic ethnography still familiar to anthropologists In addition to this formal work Zingg also penned a personal unvarnished travelogue of his sojourn among the Tarahumara Unpublished in his lifetime Behind the Mexican Mountains is now available in print for the first time This colorful account provides a compelling description of the landscape people traditions language and archaeology of the Tarahumara region Abandoning the scientific detachment of the observer Zingg frankly records his reactions to the people and their customs as he vividly evokes the daily experience of doing fieldwork In the introduction Howard Campbell examines Zingg s writing in light of current critiques of anthropology as literature He makes a strong case that although earlier anthropological writing reveals unacceptable cultural biases it also demonstrates the ongoing importance and vitality of field research
