Design History:

Introduction to Modern Design George H. Marcus, 2019-12-26 With some 280 colour illustrations Introduction to Modern Design takes us on a visual survey of design from the Industrial Revolution of the eighteenth century to the Maker Movement of today It offers a new understanding of the birth of modern design in the early twentieth century and chronicles the way its meaning has changed over the decades The narrative is supported by twenty six readings from significant texts by designers and critics offering readers an opportunity to learn about design from those who created it and those who commented on it as it was done The focus of this book is on the objects themselves from industrial design furniture ceramics textiles graphics electronics to automobiles and explores the development of these designs in relation to industrialization technology environmental responsibility consumerism individual needs and the expression of the social values of their day Clearly written and accessible Introduction to Modern Design provides a succinct history of and fascinating insights into the world of design

Reading Graphic Design in Cultural Context Grace Lees-Maffei, Nicolas P. Maffei, 2019-02-07 Reading Graphic Design in Cultural Context explains key ways of understanding and interpreting the graphic designs we see all around us in advertising branding packaging and fashion It situates these designs in their cultural and social contexts Drawing examples from a range of design genres leading design historians Grace Lees Maffei and Nicolas P Maffei explain theories of semiotics postmodernism and globalisation and consider issues and debates within visual communication theory such as legibility the relationship of word and image gender and identity and the impact of digital forms on design Their discussion takes in well known brands like Alessi Nike Unilever and Tate and everyday designed things including slogan t shirts car advertising ebooks corporate logos posters and music packaging

History of Modern Design David Raizman, 2003 An exploration of the parallel development of product and graphic design from the 18th century to the 21st The effects of mass production and consumption man made industrial materials and extended lines of communication are also discussed

Design History and the History of Design John A. Walker, 1990-10-20 An essential overview as well as a theoretical critique for all students of design history Walker studies the intellectual discipline of Design History and the issues that confront scholars writing histories of design Taking his approach from a range of related fields he discusses the problems of defining design and writing history He considers the different methods that leading scholars have used in the absence of a theoretical framework and looks critically at a number of histories of design and architecture

Writing and Research for Graphic Designers Steven Heller, 2012 30 professionals give practical advice Cover

Design History Kjetil Fallan, 2010-01-01 Design History has become a complex and wide ranging discipline It now examines artefacts from conception to development production mediation and consumption Over the last few decades the discipline has developed a diverse range of theories and methodologies for the analysis of objects Design History presents the most comprehensive overview and guide to these developments The book first traces the development of the discipline explaining how it draws from Art History Industrial Design Cultural History and Material Culture Studies The core of the book then analyses the seminal methodologies used in Design History today The final section highlights the key issues concerning knowledge and meaning in Design Throughout the aim is to present a concise and accessible introduction to this complex field A map to the intellectual landscape of Design History the book will be an invaluable guide for students and a very useful reference for scholars

The Block Reader in Visual Culture George Robertson,1996 Brings together classic writings by leading cultural theorists which were first published in the journal and are now unavailable

The Industrialization of Design Carroll Gantz,2010-11-24 Industrial design is a fundamental component of the consumer experience Almost every commercial product encountered in our day to day lives from toasters to toothbrushes has been designed with our taste our desires and our lifestyles in mind This book traces the history of industrial design beginning with the eighteenth century It identifies the major figures organizations styles and events of the profession looking particularly at the refinement of industrial design by twentieth century European artists and the congruence of American design and industry during and immediately after the Great Depression

Design History Beyond the Canon Jennifer Kaufmann-Buhler,Victoria Rose Pass,Christopher Wilson,2019-02-07 Design History Beyond the Canon subverts hierarchies of taste which have dominated traditional narratives of design history The book explores a diverse selection of objects spaces and media ranging from high design to mass produced and mass marketed objects as well as counter cultural and sub cultural material The authors research highlights the often marginalised role of gender and racial identity in the production and consumption of design the politics which underpins design practice and the role of designed objects as pathways of nostalgia and cultural memory While focused primarily on North American examples from the early 20th century onwards this collection also features essays examining European and Soviet design history as well as the influence of Asia and Africa on Western design practice The book is organised in three thematic sections Consumers Intermediaries and Designers The first section analyses a range of designed objects and spaces through the experiences and perspectives of users The second section considers intermediaries from both technology and cultural industries as well as the hidden labour within the design process itself The final section focuses on designers from multiple design disciplines including high fashion industrial design interior design graphic design and design history pedagogy The essays in all three sections utilise different research methods and a wide range of theoretical approaches including feminist theory critical race theory spatial theory material culture studies science and technology studies and art history

Design History Beyond the Canon brings together the most recent research which stretches beyond the traditional canon and looks to interdisciplinary methodologies to better understand the practice and consumption of design

Design History and the History of Design John Albert Walker,1989 An essential overview as well as a theoretical critique for all students of design history Walker studies the intellectual discipline of Design History and the issues that confront scholars writing histories of design Taking his approach from a range of related fields he discusses the problems of defining design and writing history He considers the different methods that leading scholars have used in the absence of a theoretical framework and looks critically at a number of histories of design and architecture British Qualifications Kogan Page,2006 The field of professional academic and vocational qualifications is ever changing The new edition of this highly successful and practical guide provides thorough information on all developments Fully indexed it includes details on all university awards and over 200 career fields their professional and accrediting bodies levels of membership and qualifications It acts as an one stop guide for careers advisors students and parents and will also enable human resource managers to verify the qualifications of potential employees British Qualifications Kogan Page,2004 In a single volume the new edition of this guide gives comprehensive coverage of the developments within the fast changing field of professional academic and vocational qualifications career fields their professional and accrediting bodies levels of membership and qualifications and is a one stop guide for careers advisors students and parents It should also enable human resource managers to verify the qualifications of potential employees Design and the Question of History Tony Fry,Clive Dilnot,Susan Stewart,2015-02-26 Design and the Question of History is not a work of Design History Rather it is a mixture of mediation advocacy and polemic that takes seriously the directive force of design as an historical actor in and upon the world Understanding design as a shaper of worlds within which the political ethical and historical character of human being is at stake this text demands radically transformed notions of both design and history Above all the authors posit history as the generational site of the future Blindness to history it is suggested blinds us both to possibility and to the foreclosure of possibilities enacted through our designing The text is not a resolved continuous work presented through one voice Rather the three authors cut across each other presenting readers with the task of disclosing to themselves the commonalities repetitions and differences within the deployed arguments issues approaches and styles from which the text is constituted This is a work of friendship of solidarity in difference an act of cultural politics It invites the reader to take a position it seeks engagement over agreement Annual Catalogue of the University of Kansas University of Kansas,1929

Savannah River Site at Fifty Mary Beth Reed,2002 The heart of the book is a historical treatment of Savannah River Site s operations its peak period of production 1953 to 1979 Developments in reactor technology and chemical separations heavy water production waste management and the research goals of the Savannah River Laboratory are described in layman s terms and are amply illustrated This history profiles the individuals who brought the plant to maturity and explores the two themes that define the nuclear weapons workplace safety and security Technology Architectural Record ,1917
