Lesser, 2022-09-08 This is the first study to examine desire in the Iliad in a comprehensive way and to explain its relationship to the epic's narrative structure and audience reception Rachel H Lesser offers a new reading of the poem that shows how the characters' desires especially those of the mortal hero Achilles and the divine king Zeus motivate plot and keep the audience engaged with the epic until and even beyond its end The author argues that the characters' desires are primarily organized in narrative triangles that feature two parties in conflict over a third A variety of desires animate these triangles including sexual passion longing for a lost loved one yearning for lamentation and aggressive desires for vengeance and status and they are signified with terms such as eros himeros pothe menos thumos boule and eeldor as well as through the epic's thematic emotions of grief and anger Desire in the Iliad shows how the mortals and gods' triangular desires together drive and shape two Iliadic plots the main plot of Achilles' withdrawal from the fighting and then return to battle and the superplot of the larger Trojan War story The author also argues that these plots and their motivating desires arouse the listener's or reader's own corresponding desires narrative desire to know and understand the Iliad's full story sympathetic desire for characters' welfare and empathetic passions longings and wishes Our desires invest us in the epic narrative and their resolution brings us satisfaction Manifest Your Dream Life in Jesus Dr. Lynn C. Chang, 2025-02-05 Do you long for a life of purpose fulfillment and peace Manifest Your Dream Life in Jesus 100 More Devotions offers a powerful collection of devotions designed to help you manifest your dreams and fulfill the deepest longings of your heart This book will guide you in understanding God's grace and His perfect will for your life It is God's will for you to prosper as you root yourself in His Word As Psalm 123 declares He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season and its leaf does not wither In all that he does he prospers Jesus said I have come that they may have life and have it to the full John 10:10 With God all things are possible Matthew 19:26 As you follow Jesus you will experience His healing provision and abundant
