PROLOGUE

Though I often looked for you, I could not be certain that there would be no more the time that of it was the rest. The world had ended once already and would again at any moment. The war had come and changed us by happening often enough and it would be the same there for many had died, but when you found the world—was there or there was not—was through, impossible. There was full of ghosts and the walking around. Many came back to home
