Aging Concilium:

Ethics and the Elderly Sarah M. Moses, 2015-05-22 In this study of gerontological ethics and long term care Moses offers a history of the ethics of caregiving an analysis of the present situation vis a vis contemporary society and Christian perspectives and models for future care that incorporate an ethical responsibility to care At this historical moment where an aging population advances in medical care and the rising costs of such care across the board have made ethics of health care a pressing national question Ethics and the Elderly offers timely and useful reflections for ethicists pastoral care givers and medical providers Academically sound and written at an accessible level it will be a valuable text for courses in medical ethics and Catholic moral theology and will also appeal to non academic audiences dealing with the growing field of eldercare Publisher

A Biblical Theology of Gerassapience Joel A. A. Ajayi, 2010 Ancient cultures such as that of the Hebrews commonly associated wisdom with advanced years In A Biblical Theology of Gerassapience the author investigates the validity of this correlation through an eclectic approach including linguistic semantic tradition historical and socio anthropological methods to pertinent biblical and extra biblical texts There are significant variations in the estimation of gerassapience or old age wisdom in each period of ancient Israel s life that is in pre monarchical monarchical and post monarchical Israel Throughout this study appropriate cross cultural parallels are drawn from the cultures of ancient Israel s neighbors and of modern societies such as the West African Yoruba tribe The overall results are bi dimensional On the one hand there are semantic elements of gerassapience such as the elusiveness of wisdom and the mild fluidity of old age Both terms have strong contextual affinity with minimal exceptions Thus the attribution of wisdom to old age is evident but not absolute in the Hebrew Bible Old Testament On the other hand gerassapience is depicted as primarily didactic through direct and indirect instructions and counsels of the elderly fostering the saging fear of Yahweh legacies On the whole socio anthropocentric tendencies of gerassapience that is of making old age a repertoire of wisdom are checked by theological warrants of theosapience Yahwistic wisdom Therefore in the Hebrew Bible the fear of Yahweh is also the beginning of growing old and wise

Concilium. Theology in the Age of Renewal CONCILIUM., 1965 Ignatian

Spirituality in a Secular Age George Schner,2006-01-01 While the textual focus of this collection of essays is the Spiritual Exercise of Ignatius of Loyola the essays are much more than textual analyses they deal with the tradition and institutions associated with Ignatian spirituality with historical and philosophical perspectives on Ignatian spirituality with the contemporary search for spiritual life In addition the question of the relationship of the contemporary believer to past events is addressed as well as the question of the relationship between spirituality and ministry The strong and effective combination of historical and contemporary concerns as well as of textual and spiritual concerns results in a volume of importance to students of religious history and of spirituality The analysis of the Exercises and the discussion of spiritual direction will also be of great value to ministers and pastors and to all those pursuing spiritual life in a secular age
