The Canadian Criminal Justice System Nick Larsen, 1995 The administration of justice is an area of social policy that defies attempts to achieve a balance between order and the protection of the public and respect for individual rights The media contain daily accounts of the failure of the criminal justice system to repress crime It is within this social and legal context that this work is situated In addition to including a range of articles in the standard areas of policing courts and corrections recent articles deal with such controversial issues as aboriginal justice the recruitment of visible minorities by Canadian police forces and the role of women in the Canadian criminal justice system The collection concludes with a critical assessment of the retributive model that currently serves as the philosophical underpinnings of the Canadian criminal justice system

Understanding and Treating Mental Illness John M. Cleghorn, Betty Lou Lee, Canadian Psychiatric Association. Scientific Council, 1991 This book is authored by John M Cleghorn MD and the science writer Betty Lou Lee with the support of a team of 34 psychiatrists and psychologists The result is an exploration of the major mental health problems and their treatments Overall this book provides health care professionals with an overview of our capabilities in this field

The Truth about Canada Mel Hurtig, 2011-12-28 Renowned as a passionate Canadian bestselling author Mel Hurtig has combed through world statistics to see how Canada really measures up and the results are astonishing and often shocking This book is about how Canada has changed very much for the worse in the last twenty years As a result of these profound often hidden changes we are no longer the people we think we are To take one example the Canadian media usually leaves us with the impression that

Canadians are really heavily taxed Yes compared to the U S A the usual point of comparison No compared to other countries with our standard of living other OECD countries for example there we come in 23rd on the high tax scale The shocks in this book build up chapter by chapter How do we rank in the world in voter turnout Try 109th Number of physicians per 100 000 population Try 54th Our rank in reducing pollution 126th out of 146 countries Some of the statistics are internal comparing Canada then and now They back up two of the book s most powerful themes the failure of Canadian big business to turn record profits into ongoing investment in our country and no coincidence the sellout of our assets at a rate that no other country would allow This statistics based book ranges across all areas of our lives including health wages productivity culture the media the most concentrated in the world and much else Mel Hurtig s message is that we can t do anything to fix the direction we re drifting in unless we recognize it and recognize The Truth About Canada AIDS James D.
