TO AID DEPENDENT CHILDREN

A large, light-colored silhouette of a woman on the left, a child in the center, and a man on the right, all appearing to be in a family setting. The woman is standing and looking towards the child. The child is sitting on the floor, and the man is standing behind the child, looking towards the woman.

So that dependent children can grow up in their own families, the Federal Government and the States provide cash allowances.

More children will thus have a chance to live normal, wholesome lives in their own homes.
