East African Childhood Three Versions:

East African Childhood, 1967 East African Childhood Joseph A. Lijembe, 1969 East African Childhood Lorene Kimball Fox, 1967 East African Childhood. Three Versions. Ed. by Lorene K(imball) Fox Lorene Kimball Fox, 1968 East African Childhood; Three Versions. Edited by Lorene K. Fox. Written by Joseph A. Lijembe, Anna Apoko (And) J. Mutuku Nzioki Joseph A. Lijembe, 1967 East African Childhood Joseph A. Lijembe, 1967 Childhood in Global Perspective Karen Wells, 2009-06-22 This compelling new book offers a unique global perspective on children's lives throughout the world. It shows how the notion of childhood is being radically re-shaped in part as a consequence of globalization. Taking an engaging historical and comparative approach, the book discusses wide-ranging issues such as children and war, child labour, and young people's activism around the globe. Important themes considered include: How children are constituted as raced, classed, and gendered subjects; How family policy results in some kinds of family being labelled as normal and others as deviant, and how this impacts on children; How children's involvement in war is connected to the globalization of capitalism and organised crime; How school and work operate as sites for the governing of childhood. This book will be of great value to students and scholars in the fields of sociology, social policy, and development studies. It will also be a valuable companion to practitioners of international development and social work, as well as to anyone interested in childhood in the contemporary world. The Palgrave Handbook of African Colonial and Postcolonial History Martin S. Shanguhya, Toyin Falola, 2018-01-28 This wide-ranging volume presents the most complete appraisal of modern African history to date. It assembles dozens of new and established scholars to tackle the questions and subjects that define the field, ranging from the economy, the two world wars, nationalism, decolonization, and postcolonial politics to religion, development, sexuality, and the African youth experience. Contributors are drawn from numerous fields in African studies, including art, music, literature, education, and anthropology. The themes they cover illustrate the depth of modern African history and the diversity and originality of lenses available for examining it. Older themes in the field have been treated to an engaging re-assessment, while new and emerging themes are situated as the book's core strength. The result is a comprehensive, vital picture of where the field of modern African history stands today. Sibling Relationships M. E. Lamb, B. Sutton-Smith, Brian Sutton-Smith, Michael E. Lamb, 2014-01-14 First published in 1982, since the emergence of developmental psychology early this century, theorists and researchers have emphasized the family's role in shaping the child's emergent social style, personality, and cognitive competence. In so doing, however, psychologists have implicitly adopted a fairly idiosyncratic definition of the family, one that focuses almost exclusively on parents and mostly on mothers. The realization that most families contain two parents and at least two children has occurred slowly and has brought with it recognition that children develop in the context of a diverse network of social relationships within which each person may affect every other, both directly through their interactions and indirectly, i.e. through A's effect on B, who in turn influences C. The family is such a social network itself, embedded in a broader network of

relations with neighbors relatives and social institutions Within the family relationships among siblings have received little attention until fairly recently In this volume the goal is to review the existing empirical and theoretical literature concerning the nature and importance of sibling relationships

Child Care in Context Michael E. Lamb, Kathleen J. Sternberg, Carl-Philip Hwang, Anders G. Broberg, 2014-01-02 Child care is an integral part of the web of influences and experiences that shape children's development Utilizing an interdisciplinary approach that covers both historic and economic contexts this unique book characterizes child care in 18 countries on five continents Specific historical roots and the current social contexts of child care are delineated in industrialized as well as in developing countries To increase the depth of crosscultural analysis and integration commentators from countries and disciplines other than the authors comment on the issues raised in each chapter

Childhood in a Global Perspective Karen Wells, 2015-02-02 The second edition of this compelling and popular book offers a unique global perspective on children's lives throughout the world It shows how the notion of childhood is being radically re shaped in part as a consequence of globalization Taking an engaging historical and comparative approach the book explores social issues such as how children are constituted as raced classed and gendered subjects how children's involvement in war is connected to the globalization of capitalism and organized crime and how school and work operate as sites for the governing of childhood The book discusses wide ranging topics including children's rights the family children and war child labour and young people's activism around the globe In addition to updated literature throughout the revised edition includes new chapters on migration and trafficking and the role of play The book will continue to be of great value to students and scholars in the fields of sociology geography social policy and development studies It will also be a valuable companion to practitioners of international development and social work as well as to anyone interested in childhood in the contemporary world

Reliving the Past Olivier Zunz, Charles Tilly, David William Cohen, William B. Taylor, William T. Rowe, 2014-02-01 Five historians uncover the ties between people's daily routines and the all encompassing framework of their lives They trace the processes of social construction in Western Europe the United States Latin America Africa and China discussing both the historical similarities and the ways in which individual history has shaped each area's development They stress the need for a social history that connects individuals to major ideological political and economic transformations

Becoming Female Clarie Kopp, 2013-11-11 Every woman ought to be filled with shame at the thought that she is woman Clement of Alexandria c 150-215 The five worst infirmities that afflict the female are indocility discontent slander jealousy and silliness Such is the stupidity of woman's character that it is incumbent upon her in every particular to distrust herself and to obey her husband Confucian Marriage Manual Nature intended women to be our slaves They are our property we are not theirs They belong to us just as a tree that bears fruit belongs to a gardener What a mad idea to demand equality for women Women are nothing but machines for producing children Napoleon Bonaparte The fact of the matter is that the prime responsibility of a woman probably is to be on earth long enough to find the best mate possible for herself and conceive children who will improve the species Norman Mailer Read these quotes and wonder Wonder at the strength tenacity and grace of females who have endured outrageous slings and arrows without becoming violent uncaring or incapacitated Sturdy stuff is contained in our double X preserved and nurtured for other less distorted times The Women in Context series is a reflection of the dawn ing light slowly illuminating woman as unique in some ways but nei ther less than nor more than man Surely our imperfect world can well use all the talents and capabilities that men and women possess
