East Germany Stephen R. Burant, 1988 The Break-up of Communism in East Germany and Eastern Europe Feiwel Kupferberg, 2016-07-27 This book presents a novel understanding of the break up of communist hegemony in East Germany and Eastern Europe Based on comparative case studies it argues that identity politics is a particular invention of communist rule producing a political citizen Focusing upon identity politics helps us better to understand the longterm stability of communist hegemony its sudden collapse the difficulties of transforming communist societies to liberal democracies and the unexpected revival of ethnic nationalist and cultural conflicts in post communist Eastern Europe East Germany And The Warsaw Alliance Daniel Moreton, 2019-05-20 This volume examines the role and influence of the GDR in Eastern Europe focusing on the changing nature of the German problem and the impact of East Germany on the pattern of relations within the Warsaw alliance from 1967 to the present After tracing the origins and development of the various issues that make up the contemporary German problem From East Germans to Germans? Jennifer A. Yoder, 1999 This study examines the problems of integrating East Germans into a political system that they did not create East German Historians since Reunification Axel Fair-Schulz, Mario Kessler, 2017-06-29 Surveys how reunification in 1990 impacted historical scholarship in the former East Germany With German reunification and the demise of the German Democratic Republic in 1990 East German historians and their traditions of historiography were removed from mainstream discourse in Germany and relegated to the periphery By the mid 1990s few GDR trained historians remained in academia These developments led to a greater degree of intellectual pluralism yet marginalized many accomplished scholars East German Historians since Reunification assesses what was gained and lost in the process of dissolving and remaking GDR institutions of historical scholarship The collection combines primary and secondary sources younger scholars offer analyses of East German historiography while senior scholars who lived through the dismantling process provide firsthand accounts Contributors address broad trends in scholarship as well as particular subfields and institutions What unites them is a willingness to think critically about the achievements and shortcomings of GDR historiography and its fate after German reunification History of the German People from the First Authentic Annals to the Present Time Edward Sylvester Ellis, Augustus R. Keller, 1916 The German Language in a Changing Europe Michael G. Clyne, 1995-11-16 Recent sociopolitical events have profoundly changed the status and functions of German and influenced its usage In this study published by Cambridge in 1984 Michael Clyne revises and expands his original analysis of the German language in Language and Society in the German speaking Countries in the light of such changes as the end of the Cold War German unification the redrawing of the map of Europe increasing European integration and the changing self images of Austria Switzerland and Luxembourg His discussion includes the differences in the form function and status of the various national varieties of German the relation between standard and non standard varieties gender generational and political variation Anglo American influence on German and the convergence of east and west The result is a wide ranging exploration of language and society in the German speaking countries all of which have problems or dilemmas concerning nationhood or ethnicity which are language related and or language marked Becoming East German Mary Fulbrook, Andrew I. Port, 2013-09-01 For roughly the first decade after the demise of the GDR professional and popular interpretations of East German history concentrated primarily on forms of power and repression as well as on dissent and resistance to communist rule Socio cultural approaches have increasingly shown that a single minded emphasis on repression and coercion fails to address a number of important historical issues including those related to the subjective experiences of those who lived under communist regimes With that in mind the essays in this volume explore significant physical and psychological aspects of life in the GDR such as health and diet leisure and dining memories of the Nazi past as well as identity sports and experiences of everyday humiliation Situating the GDR within a broader historical context they open up new ways of interpreting life behind the Iron Curtain while providing a devastating critique of misleading mainstream scholarship which continues to portray the GDR in the restrictive terms of totalitarian theory British Campaigns in the Nearer East, 1914-1918 Edmund Dane, 1919 Recasting East Germany Chris Flockton, Eva Kolinsky, 2012-11-12 The transformation of east Germany since unification has wrought vast changes in the economy and in society and left deep scars as the types of social protection offered by the centralised socialism of the previous regime gave way to uncertainties and individualised life chances Social Transformation in Eastern Germany investigates the deep economic and social processes which east Germany has undergone highlighting the restructuring the social impacts and the stresses of adjustment experienced by key social groups whose workplace and social context has been recast almost out of recognition since 1990 East Germany in Comparative Perspective Thomas A. Baylis, Dr David Childs, Erwin L. Collier, Marilyn Rueschemeyer, 2002-09-11 As a new decade begins the popular demand for change has meant that the social and political fabric of the the Eastern Bloc countries has been irrevocably altered This book offers a comprehensive analysis of the key political economic and social areas of East German society such as the military and the church areas which will intrinsically involved with the movement for change Democratic Values in Central and Eastern Europe Detlef Pollack, 2004 Historical Papers and Addresses of the Lancaster County Historical Society Lancaster County Historical Society (Pa.), 1910 Includes minutes of the Society s meetings Report Upon the Commercial Relations of the United States with Foreign Countries United States. Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, 1891 The New York Times Current History, 1917 Epitome of Ancient, Mediaeval and Modern History Carl Ploetz, 1883 The Precious and Sacred Writings of Martin Luther, the Hero of the Reformation, the Greatest of the Teuton Church Fathers, and the Father of Protestant Church Literature. Based on the Kaiser Chronological Ed. with Reference to the Erlangen and Walch Eds Martin Luther, 1904 The Parliamentary Debates (official Report). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1918 Rock Music in the German Democratic Republic During the 1970s Jane Vetter, 2008-10
